Lincoln Star, State Journal In New Publishing Firm

News Staffs Retain Independent Operations

Final steps for consolidation of the two companies publishing Lincoln's daily newspapers—The Lincoln Star and The State Journal—were completed Wednesday.

Earlier the program had been presented to the officers and directors of the two companies, approved, and submitted to the stockholders. At separate meetings of the stockholders of The Star Publishing Company and The State Journal Company Wednesday, the consolidation plan was approved.

Articles of consolidation have been placed on file with the secretary of state.

The consolidated company is called "Journal-Star Printing Co."

Fred Seacrest President

It will hold the buildings, equipment, and physical property previously owned by the separate publishing companies. It will be in sole, complete charge of all circulation and advertising efforts and all mechanical production of both daily newspapers, as well as the present combined Sunday Journal and Star.

News and editorial direction of the papers will be under the supervision and control of the old parent companies of each newspaper.

Direct Own News.

Under the terms of contracts entered into between the Journal-Star Printing Co., the new publishing company, and The State Journal Company, and The Lincoln Star Publishing Company, each newspaper will determine and direct its own news and editorial policy in complete independence. Only the business and mechanical functions of the newspapers will be directed by the new company.

One morning, one evening, and one Sunday paper will be printed. The time that each paper will be published will be announced later. The Sunday Journal and Star will continue as at present.

Following approval of the consolidation program by the stockholders, these officers of the Journal-Star Printing Co. were announced:

President, Fred Seacrest

Vice president, Joe W. Seacrest

Secretary-treasurer, Walter W. White

The board of directors of the Journal-Star Printing Co., in addition to the officers named, includes Lee P. Loomis, of Mason City, Ia., president of The Star Publishing Company, and Jay Seacrest, of The State Journal Company.

In New Building.

Operating plan for the two newspapers calls for publication in one building—the new, modern, magnificently equipped plant of The State Journal, the first section of which is nearing completion and is ready for occupancy.

The contract for the second section of the new plant was let a few days ago. Work of demolishing the old Journal corner building, erected in 1882, will start in February, and a new two-story building will be constructed on the site so that the new Journal-Star plant will extend from mid-block to the corner of 9th and P and connect with the Journal press building constructed in 1938 on 9th Street. The business departments—advertising, circulation, and accounting—will be located on the first floor, with the individual offices of the publishers, and with additional facilities for the employees of the newspapers. #### STATEMENT TO STAR READERS

Walter W. White, publisher of The Lincoln Star, Thursday issued the following statement:

"The Lincoln newspaper field was confronted with the necessity of making changes in production methods to meet the present-day problems in the newspaper field which prevail generally over this country. The Lincoln Star, through its officers, directors, and stockholders, has taken a step to accomplish this purpose.

"The details are set forth fully in an accompanying news report. In brief form, here are the reasons for the step, and the greater opportunities for public service which it offers the newspaper.

"Very few cities the size of Lincoln have been able to afford the luxury of two afternoon newspapers and a morning newspaper in a field of 100,000 people.

"Publication of two such newspapers has required two complete newspaper plants, duplication of factory and staff adding up to costly operation. The corrective machinery of consolidating the two publishing companies into a single corporation responsible for advertising, circulation and mechanical production has been completed without sacrifice of the individual character or the independent spirit of either newspaper. The central company, which now owns the building and machinery of the two newspapers, will be in charge of the business functions.

"Speaking for The Lincoln Star, direction, control and policy-making of the news and editorial content of The Lincoln Star will remain with The Lincoln Star staff.

"That staff will be responsible only to the officers, directors, and stockholders of The Star Publishing Company. This has been provided for fully in the contract between the Journal-Star Printing Co., and The Star Publishing Company for supplying all editorial and news functions.

"The step fits in with newspaper developments in many American cities. What is being done here represents careful study and discussion, with concern for the editorial independence of each paper. The formula for consolidation is our own, and has been carefully developed.

"It contains these guarantees which we consider important:

(1) Each of the Lincoln newspapers will be independent of the other in news and editorial policy. Each paper will be edited and will be under the direction of those who controlled that function previous to the consolidation.

(2) There is the inherent opportunity that both newspapers will have a better chance to become better newspapers.

(3) Because this venture offers better economic security to the newspapers themselves, it presents added security for the large staff of faithful employees who produce the finished product.

"The Lincoln Star has served the people of Lincoln and of Nebraska faithfully for nearly a half century.

"Our staff is entering upon this new phase of the paper's career with enthusiasm for the opportunity and the challenge it offers.

"Our steady, constant purpose shall be improvement of the newspaper."

Journal, occupying separate spaces, are advantageously located with respect to composing-room facilities, stereotyping and engraving. Expansion and some shifting of quarters will follow completion of the second building stage.

Included in the new plant and in the second section to be built are lunch and rest rooms for employees, and an auditorium for civic and organizational gatherings.

Executives Continue.

Continuing in executive or key positions on The Lincoln Star are: Walter W. White, publisher; J. E. Lawrence, editor; L. A. Becker, city editor; Lynelle Greer, women's and society editor; Norris Anderson, sports editor; Maxine Wolf, state editor; Arch Donovan, state house and political writer; and Homer Fine, farm editor.

The consolidation program follows months of study and negotiation. It is in line with the trend in American journalism in many cities, where mounting costs of newsprint, of mechanical production, and of news services, continuing to increase year after year, have posed serious problems for newspaper management.

To Strengthen Each Paper.

Both parties have realized that the city of Lincoln, served by two afternoon papers, a morning paper, and a combined Sunday paper, represented a departure from the pattern of most cities of its size, and in many instances, much larger. The result of these continuing studies was always the same. It pointed to the fact that the people of Lincoln could be better served by two newspapers, one operating in the morning field, one in the evening, and each editorially independent—independent in news and views—and a combined Sunday newspaper. It should present an opportunity to strengthen and improve each paper in its field, and to produce a superior product.

Mr. J. E. Lawrence, long associated with The Lincoln Star, and achievement, the same sense of rejoicing in the successes and triumphs that come to friends and neighbors, or to the citizens of a community; the same personal grief and sorrow inspired by tragedy or loss. The challenge of the times is for a constantly improving newspaper, a carefully edited, thoughtful newspaper, radiating hope and faith and not forgetting in the days of living, that a chuckle and a smile have a place in this world. I am sure that the staff of The Lincoln Star will devote its entire energies and enthusiasm to the production of a better newspaper. It will constantly strive for and achieve improvement."

TV Is A Treat, Not Treatment, Spradling Says

Experience with two television sets which have been given patients by relatives leaves a big question mark as to their therapeutic value, Dr. F. S. Spradling, superintendent of Lincoln State hospital, said Thursday.

Programs may reach the state that there will be some value, he said, but aged women patients cannot be greatly benefited by watching wrestling matches.

"Our presently operated occupational and recreational therapy programs, from which we are obtaining good results, should not be contrasted with television which at best could be but a small part of recreational therapy.

"We have no intention of purchasing any sets," Dr. Spradling said. "This is a hospital with psychiatrists giving medical treatment to those who are ill. Amusement devices cannot replace medical treatment."

State Legislation Discussed By Demos

Legislative matters which the state democratic party will take up with the legislature in the period before the next election were the principal topic of discussion at a meeting of the state executive committee of the party Thursday.

Committee Chairman Hugh Riley of Fairbury presided at the meeting in the Lincoln hotel. No details of the legislative policy under discussion were released.

—Excess Profits—

TAX BILL SPEEDED

... Passed By Senate

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Congress drove today for a hurry-up agreement on terms of an excess profits tax to skim billions from corporation earnings.

The senate gave the measure speedy approval yesterday, after a sketch-the-highlights report from its tax-writing finance committee on what the bill would do.

Designed to tax away an additional $3,200,000,000 of this year's corporation profits, and far bigger sums as defense spending mounts, the bill differs radically from the form in which the house had passed it earlier.

Today a committee of senate and house members took over, seeking a compromise.

A. J. Horky, Park Founder, Is Dead

WILBER, Neb.—(AP)—Anton J. Horky, founder of the Horky amusement park near Crete, Neb., died Wednesday night at his home here after a lengthy illness.

Horky and his son, Albert, managed the park up to about five years ago when it was sold. Horky retired and moved here.

Funeral services will be held Saturday morning at the Catholic church here. Survivors include his widow, Mary, one daughter and four sons.

Quiet Settles Over Hungnam Area

TOKYO—(AP)—The Hungnam beachhead lay quiet today after allied land-sea-air barrages mowed down and rolled back the reds' most menacing attack on the perimeter.

Frozen bodies of Chinese and white-robed Korean reds littered the snow-crusted east flank of the United Nations defense ring where the attack was made.

Communist survivors apparently were numbered to a standstill by the fury of round-the-clock bombardment Wednesday by allied warships, planes and land artillery.

Field dispatches reported the shattered survivors were thrown back from the point of gravest peril to the allied forces holding their last sliver of northeast Korea around Hungnam on the Sea of Japan shore.

West Front Quiet.

Quiet also was reported on the western Korean front.

Gen. MacArthur's headquarters reported the Chinese had suffered heavy losses—at a ratio of 10 to 1—during the darkest days of the allied retreat from most of North Korea, Nov. 27 to Dec. 12.

Before that period, the defense department in Washington had listed American casualties in Korea at 31,028 through Nov. 24, including 5,307 dead.

The Chinese have been around the Hungnam beachhead in great force for days, but it was apparent that the battling retreat of U. S. marines and 10th corps doughboys farther north had badly crippled an estimated 10 red divisions.

Withdrawal Orderly.

Red efforts to reorganize their forces were progressing slowly—too slowly to hamper the planned withdrawal of American forces on the Hungnam beach. U. S. losses there are reported extremely small considering the action involved.

AP correspondents Tom Lambert and Stan Swinton, in the beachhead, reported enemy inactivity on the Hungnam perimeter had field commanders worried, although they said they were certain that steady pounding by warplanes, field artillery and big naval guns had hurt the reds badly.

The Far East air forces reported continuing attacks on communist forces throughout the U. S. Eighth army area in the northwest.

A top officer at Gen. MacArthur's headquarters said the enemy was "not unusual in comparison with other wars."

... Big Operating Unions Get Pay Increase

HAPPY MAN — Alvin Dockweiler, who has got good reason to let loose with a happy smile. He's the first patient to undergo heart surgery in a Lincoln hospital and he's going to make it home for Christmas. Checking his progress at St. Elizabeth hospital Thursday morning is Nurse Rosemary Kavan, who is also from Wahoo. (Staff Photo.)

Hospital Patient From Wahoo Has A Heart Full Of Thanks

... Heart Surgery Successful For A. Dockweiler

There's heavy thanks today in the heart of Alvin Dockweiler, the first patient to undergo heart surgery in a Lincoln hospital.

The 60-year-old Wahoo man has double reason for his thanks.

First of all, he is well on his way to complete recovery from the unusual operation and, as his physician put it, "is going to be quite all right."

Secondly, he's going to make it home for Christmas. Dockweiler will be discharged from St. Elizabeth hospital Saturday.

The operation, his physician explained, involved removing a

"sack" around his heart.

Gradually, without Dockweiler knowing it, calcium deposits formed a "wall of stone" around his heart. Because of this his heart was not able to expand.

It hasn't taken long for Dockweiler to recover. He has been in the hospital for a month, but the operation was performed last Thursday.

Naturally, Dockweiler, a big man weighing about 200 pounds and standing six feet and one inch, is a mighty happy man—happy the operation was a success and happy to be going home for Christmas.

Oath Taken By Wilson

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Charles E. Wilson took office today as director of defense mobilization and immediately appointed Gen. Lucius Clay and banker Sidney Weinberg as his assistants.

Wilson, former president of General Electric, took the oath of office at the White House after taking the oath of office in President Truman's presence.

Wilson said Clay and Weinberg will serve without compensation.

Clay, former U. S. commander at Berlin, is relinquishing his duties as chairman of the board of the Continental Can Co.

Weinberg is senior partner of Goldman, Sachs & Co., New York investment banking firm. He was a vice chairman of the war production board in World War II.

Stuart Symington, chairman of the national security resources board, some of whose duties Wilson is taking over in the mobilization job, stepped up after the ceremony smiling and said, "Let me be the first to congratulate you."

Former Member Of Star Staff Is Aide To Short

Irving Perlmeter, reporter for The Lincoln Star from 1929 to 1934, Thursday was appointed an assistant to Joseph Short, the new White House press secretary, an Associated Press dispatch from Washington discloses.

Now information officer at the internal revenue bureau and former Associated Press reporter, Perlmeter, 41, is a native of Omaha. He attended Creighton university, Omaha, and the University of Nebraska. He worked for the Associated Press in Lincoln until 1936 and was a Washington reporter for the AP from 1936 until 1943, when he took charge of public relations at the internal revenue bureau.

Roger Tubby, now a press officer in the state department, was the other assistant named by Short.

Casualties ...

U. N. troops suffered nearly 13,000 casualties in the Chinese reds' main counter-offensive ...

But the drive brought tenfold losses to the enemy, Gen. MacArthur says.

Allied casualties, exclusive of South Koreans, between Nov. 27 and Dec. 12 were 12,975 killed, wounded and missing.

MacArthur emphasizes the losses "are not unusual in comparison with other wars."

40-Hour Week Delayed Till '52

Army Expected To Turn Over Line Operation To Owners Soon

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The White House today announced a three-year peace pact between the major railroads and four operating rail unions.

The agreement provides: An immediate increase of 23 cents an hour, with another 2 cents on Jan. 1 and cost of living adjustments every three months beginning next April 1. The adjustments are to be made at the rate of one cent an hour for every rise or fall of one point in the government's consumers price index.

The 23-cent pay boost is retroactive to Oct. 1.

For about 180,000 road service workers—An immediate increase of 5 cents an hour, also retroactive to Oct. 1, and another 5 cents effective Jan. 1, plus the same cost of living arrangement.

Months Long Dispute.

The settlement was announced by Presidential Assistant John R. Steelman, who took over negotiations in the months-long dispute after the government seized the railroads last August to avert a threatened nation-wide strike.

Steelman said union leaders had agreed in principle after a 26-hour overnight conference to a moratorium on any further demands by the four unions.

The agreement probably will lead to quick restoration of the rail line operations to their owners. The army has been running the roads.

As drafted, the settlement represents a compromise between some of the union demands and what the railroads offered.

One of the chief demands of the trainmen, conductors, and firemen and engineers was a 40-hour-work week without loss in the present 48 hours' pay.

There was agreement in principle on this, but the compromise schedule would be put off at least until Jan. 1, 1952.

At that time, the manpower situation will be studied by both sides with the help of Steelman. If it should be put in effect then the workers will get an additional 4 cents an hour.

Besides the cost of living adjustment, which auto workers already have in their contracts, the railroads and the four unions agreed to another major feature of the industry pact. That is an advance for productivity improvement each year.

After Jan. 1, 1952, if the government policy level is higher than the productivity level, the parties will sit down and consider further wage adjustments for all rail workers.

They will be assisted in that by Steelman, but if they cannot agree after 8 a. m. on the basis of the productivity level, the government will take over the industry. President Truman will be asked to appoint a referee whose decision would be binding.

Steelman could not say immediately whether he would be ending government operation of the railroads. He said he would consult with the leaders of the 16 other so-called non-operating rail unions who are asking for a 25-cent hourly pay increase.

Demand of the non-operating unions, representing clerks and similar employees, is to have the only ones confronting the industry.

Today's agreement would wipe out all the long requests of the four operating unions whose members, trainmen, conductors, engineers, and firemen, actually run the trains.

Approximately 700 Workers In Lincoln

Approximately 700 Lincoln workers will be affected by the proposed railroad "peace pact," a survey Thursday revealed.

The Burlington railroad and the Missouri Pacific have the most men affected by the pact because Lincoln is a major link in their lines and the home of many of their road men. The Union Pacific and the Rock Island, however, do not have as many employees living in this city.

Defense Bills Are Passed

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The senate today voted $200,000,000 for defense spending and gave approval for $1,600,000,000 of special defense construction, much of it top secret.

Both measures were passed by voice votes.

The $1,600,000,000 authorization measure goes on to President Truman. The house passed it yesterday.

The big appropriation bill, a catch-all for funds asked by President Truman since communist Chinese forces surged into Korea, goes back to the house.

As the bill cleared the senate it carried some $2,000,000,000 more than voted by the house. These differences are expected to be adjusted quickly.

Under the bill, the senate will be asked to approve a $1,000,000,000 military public works authorization, much of it for top-secret purposes.

2,543 New Casualties

Total Includes Some Losses Since Chinese Offensive Launched

WASHINGTON—(INS)—The defense department announced today that through Dec. 15 relatives had been notified of 2,543 American casualties in Korea.

This was an increase of 2,543 over the official total announced last week for the period through Dec. 8.

A spokesman said that the latest total includes some casualties since the Chinese communists offensive launched Nov. 27, but that it does not include any casualties resulting from exposure or frostbite, even though these were suffered in action and may have resulted in amputations or deaths.

Illness Not Included.

The spokesman said that illness and exposure have never been included in the tabulations of battle casualties, although injuries from accidents with vehicles are included.

The latest official total showed 3,518 Americans killed in action; 25,287 wounded, of whom 687 have died, and 5,316 missing, of whom 638 have been rescued.

The army as of Dec. 15 had 30,613 verified casualties: the marine corps, 3,102; the navy 392 and the air force 294.

City Tax Collection Sets Record

First Half Payments Total $691,161

A record first installment tax collection of $691,161 was reported by the city treasurer Thursday for 1950.

The figure represents 53.81 per cent of the yearly levy and is over 5 per cent higher than the record amount collected in 1949 for the same period.

Back taxes collected for the period ending Dec. 1, 1950 bring the total tax income to date to $711,028.84. The second tax installment runs to June 1, 1951.

In the November city financial report also filed Thursday there is $2,216,441.07 listed held by the city treasurer at the end of the month.

Only $701,491.74, however, is in the general fund for use by the city. Self sustaining funds such as the water and light department, muni coal and gas, aviation, hospital and miscellaneous account for $740,263.57.

Trust funds and bonds come to $381,049.75 and special assessment paving, water, sewer and graveling districts have a fund of $393,646.01.

Praise Given Mrs. Woods' Philanthropy

Tribute was paid Wednesday to Mrs. Frank H. Woods as a great civic leader, philanthropist, wife and mother, church member and leader, by Dr. Raymond A. McConnell, pastor of Plymouth Congregational church.

Speaking at final rites held at the home for Mrs. Woods, he said, "She was a Christian woman of great stature of character, tolerance and wisdom of mind, and unflinching courage, frankness and generosity."

"She has found her peace, peace which the world can neither give nor take away," he said.

"It is our purpose to pay a brief tribute to her personality," the pastor stated.

Leadership Felt.

Speaking of her days as a student, he said, "Her leadership already was felt as a student, and her capacity for leadership never failed."

"Mrs. Woods brought to her marriage and homemaking all the great intelligence, energy, and stirring capacity for leadership."

"Her philanthropies have been many, unceasing, and wise and have carried her personal interest. The Woods charitable fund (which she helped to found) has long since established itself as one of the great constructive charitable foundations of the state and country and will long be a monument to those who created it."

"Loyal Member."

Mrs. Woods was for 54 years a member of First-Plymouth Congregational church, "a loyal member, regular in attendance until her illness of the past two years prevented, active in the women's work and in all the affairs of the church."

"Faithful in small things, un-failing in large enterprises, an individualist who could co-operate with many, a dominant and dynamic personality who could submit to the judgments of others, she was one of the rare and outstanding people of our time and age."

New Record Wheat Mark Likely 1951

96,096,000 Bu. For Nebraska

(By the Associated Press)
The biggest winter wheat crop in Nebraska history is in prospect for 1951, the department of agriculture has reported.

A 96,096,000 bushel crop was predicted. Winter wheat acreage was reported as 4,368,000 in the state.

If the huge crop materializes—and much can happen between now and harvest—it will eclipse the previous record yield of 98,723,000 bushels set in 1936. The second high output was 89,282,000 bushels in 1947 and this year's crop ranked third at 84,128,000 bushels.

These records cover the past 50 years.

Nebraska has 305,000 acres seeded to rye and the crop shapes up as 89 per cent of normal condition, the agricultural department said.

Acreage 6th Highest.
Rye, like winter wheat, is planted in the fall and harvested the next summer. The agriculture department does not make advance estimates this early on crops planted in the spring.

The number of acres planted to winter wheat this fall ranks as the sixth highest of record in Nebraska. A year ago the plantings totaled 4,596,000 acres, although only 3,677,000 were harvested.

Match Folder Clue, Officer's Memory Break Burglary Case

An innocent-appearing packet of "gopher" matches has resulted in three Lincoln men being named as suspects in the Tuesday night burglary of a Bennet tavern.

But for the memory of Officer Robert Sawdon—who also reads the daily newspapers—the incriminating clue would have gone by the boards.

Deputy County Attorney Herbert A. Ronin said Thursday morning one of the men has admitted participation and has implicated the other two. Ronin is to take a statement from him Thursday afternoon.

Sawdon read in the newspaper after coming to work Wednesday night that Ab Jensen's beer tavern in Bennet had been broken into Tuesday night.

He recalled noticing a book of matches—bearing the tavern name—which had been taken from one of the three men brought to jail after being found drinking beer with a 31-year-old penitentiary escapee early Wednesday morning.

Sawdon phoned Deputy Sheriff Les Fought about 1 a. m., and told

N. U. Student Is Injured In Auto Accident

An 18-year-old University of Nebraska student from Omaha was still in serious condition but off the critical list Thursday at St. Elizabeth hospital, where he was taken following an automobile accident near Exeter early Wednesday evening.

The attending physician reported James L. Parmelee, jr., was suffering from internal injuries and serious shock. The extent of injuries had not yet been fully determined.

Parmelee, a sophomore in the university's college of engineering, is the son of J. L. Parmelee of Omaha. In Lincoln he lives at the Theta Xi fraternity, 1535 R.

A passenger in the Parmelee car, Miss Martha Pickard of Geneva, was taken to a Geneva hospital and treated for cuts and bruises. She has been dismissed from the hospital there.

State Patrolman John Ayers of Fairmont, who investigated the accident, said the driver apparently lost control of the car and it went off the side of the road and over an embankment.

The car turned over several times and landed about 20 feet below road level, Ayers said.

President's Thanks Are Sent To Mayor

President Harry S. Truman, through his secretary, sent a reply of thanks to Mayor Victor Anderson for the mayor's recent offer of support and co-operation in an all-out mobilization program for the country.

The mayor received the answer Thursday along with a copy of the president's Dec. 15 address to the nation in which Mr. Truman made known his intention of declaring a state of emergency.

Hattie Caraway Dead

First Woman Elected To U. S. Senate Succumbs At Age Of 72

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—Mrs. Hattie W. Caraway, 72, of Arkansas, first woman ever elected to the United States senate, died today at White Hall sanitarium at Falls Church, Va.

She had been ill since last Jan. 11. Her condition took a turn for the worse when she had a stroke which left her partly paralyzed. Mrs. Caraway was a member of the federal employees compensation appeals board at the time of her death.

She was a senator for slightly

Anti-Slot Bill May Be Handed To Legislature

An anti-slot machine bill may pop up in the next legislature. If so, it probably will be introduced by the judiciary committee rather than by an individual.

Attorney General C. S. Beck said Thursday that he has provided the legislative bill drafting service with laws now in effect in other states which he said they claim keeps the states free of "one arm bandits."

Both the Minnesota law, which Gov. Luther W. Youngdahl recently asserted cleared that state of the machines, and the Wisconsin law are being held for the information of the committee.

Such a bill, Beck believes, should not be sponsored by his office although he favors its passage. The Minnesota law automatically cancels liquor and tobacco licenses where slot machines and certain other gambling devices are found.

Banning of certain selected devices might pave the way for reopening of other forms of gambling such as bingo, a senator visiting in the capitol pointed out. He expressed the opinion gambling was under control under the present laws.

"The effect of passing special laws on certain types of gambling will have to be carefully studied," he asserted.

Colvard Ferguson Services Saturday; Prominent Rancher

BREWSTER, Neb.—(AP)—Funeral services will be held here Saturday afternoon for Colvard Ferguson, 41, prominent rancher, who died Wednesday at Lincoln.

Survivors include his widow, three children, brother, Harold, and his father.

NERVES?

Due to a lack of Vitamins B1, B2, Iron and Niacin!

Perhaps you are nervous, uncertain, tense, due to a lack of Vitamins B1, B2, Iron and Niacin in your system, like Mr. Charles A. Brown, 2804 Harrison, Kansas City, Mo.

Let him tell you how today's great Hadaool helped him by relieving the cause of his distress due to such deficiencies: "I am 50 years old and employed on a job that at times is very much a strain on the nerves. A year or so ago, I began to have backaches. I also seemed to wake up in the morning with a feeling as though I had a hangover. I had been taking Hadaool now for about 2 months, having finished one large bottle and starting on my second. I can truthfully say I haven't felt as good in ten years. Hadaool has been a Godsend to me and I highly recommend it for anyone who isn't feeling up to par."

Only Hadaool gives you that "Wonderful Hadaool Feeling"—trial size bottle only $1.25; large family or hospital size, $3.50. Recommended by many doctors, money-back guarantee.

CHRISTMAS SPIRIT TOUCHES ALL—Christmas is probably the most universally liked of all holidays. It appeals to everyone, young or old. A toyland merry-go-round just won't let go of Jeanine Muenchau, 2, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.

Morris Muenchau, Eagle, left, and Diane Schumaker, 5, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Schumaker, Syracuse. Hurrying across the corner at Twelfth and O are Christmas gift buyers, some with packages already tucked under their arms, others still puzzling over what to get some members of the family or a friend. The big Christmas attraction, as always, is that jolly fat man with the whiskers and red suit. Whether he is called St. Nicholas, Kris Kringle or Santa Claus, he is dear to the hearts of those gentle people, children, as they climb all over him, whispering what they would like to find under their Christmas tree.

11 REFORMATORY INMATES GET PAROLES AS CHRISTMAS GIFTS

Faced with 11 applications for clemency at the men's reformatory Wednesday, the board of pardons found every one had proven that he could live with others, obey the law and were good risks for parole.

An interested spectator was deputy County Attorney Ted Rishling of Douglas county, who will retire from his public office the first of the year.

"I just wanted to see for myself what happens to young men sent here," Rishling told the board after finding that he had prosecuted the cases of a majority of those up for parole. "Honestly, the change is so great that I would not have recognized some of them had I met them on the street."

Work Praised.

He agreed with the board in their actions and said he could not praise too highly the work now being done at the reformatory.

THE SKINNER CHIEF SAYS:

HERE'S HOW TO MAKE LEFT-OVER TURKEY AND CHICKEN GO FURTHER!

... SERVE SKINNER'S HOLIDAY SPAGHETTI CASSEROLE

The Ingredients You Need:

- 2 cups left-over Turkey or Chicken
- 7 oz. Skinner's Ready Cut Spaghetti
- 1 can condensed mushroom soup
- 1/2 cup milk
- 1/4 cup diced green pepper
- 1/4 cup sliced stuffed olives
- 1/2 cup grated cheese
- Crushed potato chips for topping.

PREPARE THIS EASY WAY

To 2 quarts boiling water, add 1 teaspoon salt, then add SKINNER'S Ready Cut Spaghetti gradually. Cook uncovered at rapid boil 10 minutes, or until spaghetti can be cut with fork against the side of the pan. Drain, don't rinse. SKINNER'S macaroni products need no rinsing. Blend condensed soup with milk. Add grated cheese, green pepper and olives. Combine spaghetti, meat and soup mixture. Pour into greased casserole. Top with crushed potato chips. Bake at 325-350 degrees for 30-35 min. Serves 6.

SERVE WITH

- Cranberry Saled Hot Rolls
- Green Beans
- Ice Cream
- Coffee
- Christmas Cookies

tory by Supt. George Morris and staff.

"If past experience holds true, there will be very few if any of these men in trouble again," he continued. "We have watched paroles closely on men sent to the reformatory and have found few backsliders. I have them come to me almost daily with their problems, help them get jobs and know they have been helped."

"It is pretty generally understood in our court that when the minimum sentence is served they have paid the penalty. We also use a maximum so that if they have not reformed they can be held until they do. When George Morris and his classification board says they are ready to leave, that is good enough for us because it is usually right."

Immediate Paroles.

All applicants were given immediate paroles except George Tenhaaf of Sperry, Ia., who will await admittance to a veterans hospital. Those paroled are: Walter M. Taylor, 32, Oxford, forgery, Buffalo 2-3 years, 1949. Earl R. Lorenzen, 23, Omaha, robbery, Douglas 5-10 years, 1946. Howard L. Brisby, 21, Omaha, robbery, Douglas 5-10 years, 1949. Ray Ryan, 25, Tilden, auto theft, Douglas 3 years, 1949. James Buevaco, 26, Omaha, assault to rob, Douglas 3-5 years, 1948. Cecil Wright, 22, Omaha, receiving stolen property, Douglas 3 years, 1949. David J. Kortus, 18, Omaha, auto theft, Douglas 1-2 years, 1950. Felix R. Sparks, 27, Omaha, break and enter, Douglas 2-3 years, 1949. Floyd Kemmoe, 20, Lincoln, burglary, Lancaster 2-4 years, 1949. John Wall, 22, Lincoln, burglary, Lancaster 1-2 years, 1949.

Several of the youths informed the board that they had completed their high school education at the reformatory school on a voluntary basis. One said he was going to enroll in college.

Frank Camp, 70, Former Resident Of Lincoln, Dies

Frank Camp, 70, a former resident of Lincoln, died Tuesday in Loveland, Colo. Since his retirement about two months ago, he had made his home at Berthoud, Colo.

Mr. Camp was associated with the Midwest Life Insurance company while in Lincoln. He later lived at Broken Bow, and at Alliance, where he was in charge of the rent control office.

He is survived by his wife, Lois; two sons, Don of Norfolk, and Dr. R. B. Camp of Loveland; a brother, William of Lincoln, and a brother-in-law Dr. C. B. Branson of Lincoln.

The body will be brought to Lincoln for services at 11 a. m. Saturday at Roper and Sons' chapel. Burial will be in Wyuka cemetery.

Elgin Company Asks Portable Stop Sign

The use of a portable stop sign on Seventeenth street directly in front of the Elgin National Watch company was requested by the company in a letter to the city council Wednesday.

The letter states that there is no protection for employes in crossing Seventeenth street during opening and closing hours.

"We definitely feel that it will only be a matter of time before a serious accident will occur," it was said.

The sign was requested for use between the hours of 7 and 7:30 a. m. and from 4 to 4:16 p. m.

Committee Makes Conference Plans

Members of the Evangelical United Brethren planning committee met Wednesday to work out details of the Nebraska Ministerial Fellowship Conference of the E. U. B. to be held in Omaha, Jan. 23-25.

The conference will be held in the Hartfield Memorial E.U.B. church.

Dr. C. Ashcraft, Dean Emeritus, Bonebroke Theological seminary of Dayton, Ohio, will be the principal speaker.

Rev. D. R. Roker, Calvary church of Lincoln, presided.

The speed of meteors ranges from 10 to 45 miles per second.

Dummy Of Santa Taken From Yard

Santa Claus kept a theatre date Sunday night, but returned home a little worse for wear.

About 10:35 p. m. Mrs. Clyde A. Cessa, 3140 North Forty-eighth, told police that a life size Santa Claus dummy valued at $20 was missing from her front yard.

Shortly afterward police found him in front of the Joyo theatre in Hevelock—St. Nick had suffered slight damage, they said.

An 18-inch doll, dressed in a pink silk dress and a blue hat, was also stolen from the Cessa's yard display. It was valued at $10.

Bigger And Better

Here it is nearing the close of the month, and the year, and we are told that next July, luck continuing to hold, Nebraska stands to harvest the largest wheat crop in its history. That is good news. The cry now is for more food, for stepped-up production, and while Nebraska farmers at the time they planted their acreage to wheat had no advance information, the outlook fits into the pattern to a nicety.

The year now drawing its last gasps has been eminently satisfactory, offering no new records, it is true, but gratifyingly large crops and an income for the farmers just short of a billion dollars. That is hard to beat.

Mrs. Frank H. Woods

Mrs. Frank H. Woods was one of the group of pioneer Lincoln women, and they constituted a remarkable group, who contributed to the graciousness of the social and cultural life of this community. She came to Lincoln as a young woman and while her interests primarily at all times were in her home and her family, she had time and energy to contribute to the work of the women's club, the art association, the YWCA, and the Red Cross, and especially to her church. To each of them, she brought a genuine concern for their growth and usefulness; through counsel she made a contribution to intelligent, wise leadership. It was in her home that she was happiest, a home and family upon which she centered her devotion.

Our Own

"United Nations troops" arouses in us a sense of our side -vs- their side. When we read about American forces, the feeling advances a step to national pride and concern. Reference to a Nebraska unit whittles it down—but the spot right next to our hearts is reserved for the kids who went to school with our kids, the ones we write to, pray for, and lie awake nights worrying over—the hometown boys! And from out of Korea, letters find their way back to the cities, the farms, the small towns. A touch of the same humor that has seen us through before... a hint of homesickness, perhaps... and a great deal of compassion and courage may be found therein.

"Last night I slept on a manure pile," wrote Don Valentine, of Ravenna. "I chased an old cow away and stole some of her bedding to put over the manure. Not a very attractive bed, but it beat a snow bank."

To Cambridge came word from Pfc. Donald D. Stahl, to his mother, Mrs. Dee Stahl:

"In moving from Pusan to Seoul, we picked up a little boy between two and three years of age. He was hungry and cold, and we kept him in our unit until the air force, with their chaplain and doctor, made an orphanage of an old building. The boys went out at night and hunted in alleys and brush heaps until they found about 300 children... Only one died."

And Oakland's Bud Dahlgren looked to the approaching season.

"I suppose by now you're getting ready for Christmas. Mom, I know you worry about me a lot, and I know that over the holidays you'll be mighty blue. So please do me one favor—try not to worry, and have a good time for me, too. We'll look at it this way. Christmas day we'll probably be up front fighting. But every foot of ground we take means freedom for many people, that they may worship God and have democracy. And next Christmas not only you and I, but they also, can celebrate the coming of Christ."

Mr. Hoover Speaks

A great anxiety plagues the American people.

It stems from the question of the safety and security of American soil, which is the center of high controversy today. It was to this basic issue that a former president, Herbert Hoover, addressed himself in a nationwide broadcast Wednesday night. The people should ponder upon his words. He was discussing the greatest question that has confronted them.

We agree fully with Mr. Hoover's warning that the course of American wisdom is to steer clear of the pitfalls of major warfare upon the Asiatic mainland.

We subscribe 100 per cent to this:

"Any attempt to make war on the communist mass by a land invasion, through the quicksands of China, India, or western Europe, would be sheer folly. That would be the graveyard of millions of American boys and would end in the exhaustion of this Gibraltar of western civilization."

Mr. Hoover is on less solid ground when it comes to western Europe, or the western continental Europe. To attempt to draw an imaginary line some place in Germany, or on the fringes of the borders of the free peoples of western Europe, may be difficult but somewhere there in western Europe is the beachhead upon which American assurance of security must rest.

In some other respects, the former president was vague and indefinite. He called upon America to "arm to the teeth" to hold the Atlantic and the Pacific oceans, and with the island outposts of Britain, Japan, Formosa, and the Philippines.

His inclusion of Formosa is startling. It contradicts his grim warning against involvement with the Asiatic masses on the mainland. If an attempt to make war on the communist mass by land invasion of the Asiatic mainland is national suicide, then any attempt to take up the cudgel for Chiang to underwrite a refuge is no less dangerous.

The reference to Britain ignores the fact that the British do not see eye to eye with us in the Far East. Britain has recognized communist China; America does not. Mr. Hoover would have the United Nations declare communist China an aggressor, and refuse it membership. He would seek to have United Nations members refuse military aid to communist China. In the matter of branding communist China an aggressor, and on the score of military aid, Britain and some of the others probably would go the full road with us, but that falls short of a guarantee of security.

Mr. Hoover voices the sentiments of all Americans when he says that American assistance should rest upon the condition individual nations or peoples show a real determination to defend themselves, and the free world. We simply haven't the plasma to revive drooping nations lacking both the will and spirit to throw themselves fully into this struggle, heart and soul.

MR. ACHESON STAYS

If Drew Pearson knows his beans, or his way around in Washington's fog, then it is General George C. Marshall, not Dean Acheson, who strongly advises a moderate American course in Asia.

On this page Wednesday, Pearson said this in his column:

"A unique backstage difference of opinion has developed between two of the most important policy-makers in the cabinet—Secretary of State Acheson and Secretary of Defense Marshall—over hostilities in the Orient. The difference is that Acheson, accused by republicans of being an appeaser, is far more belligerent than Marshall, a military man. Marshall's view—and it's shared by other military men—is that we must let no hysterical cries from congress or irresponsible military actions in Asia embroil us in war. What Marshall and his military staff fear is that some sudden move by us may convince the Russians we are about to attack... Secretary Marshall in meetings of the cabinet and the national security council, has pleaded for calmness. He has also warned General MacArthur against any move which would bring on World War III and he was opposed to MacArthur's troop movements near the Manchurian border after it had been agreed that we would keep a 40-mile neutrality zone this side of Manchuria."

If that is General Marshall's position, and there has not been so much as a single scrap of paper or discussion to the contrary, then he speaks for Nebraska. Anyone could crawl into a car, knock at doors, and discover without much effort that the great majority of Nebraskans are opposed to becoming involved in any major conflict in Asia. They are not isolationists in the old sense, but they are against sacrificing a million boys in order to force communist China to accept Chiang Kai-shek, or any other chosen leader of the nationalist Chinese party.

It may be a matter of canny timing or only mere coincidence that Mr. Pearson contributes this insight on American policy in Asia.

— Washington Merry-Go-Round —
NO APPEASEMENT OF CHINESE COMMUNISTS

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON—White House policy can change overnight, but for the present we have no intention of mobilizing the vast but disorganized army of anti-communist guerrillas in China. President Truman so advised a group of congressmen at an off-the-record and very candid meeting last week.

Truman also is holding firm to his resolve not to drop the atomic bomb in China or Korea.

"That doesn't mean that we are appeasing the Chinese communists—far from it," Truman told his callers. "They are aggressors and we will continue to treat them as such."

Truman added that if British Prime Minister Clement Attlee came with any appeasement notions, he left without them. He agreed with Attlee, however, that if we used the A-bomb, Russia would seize the opportunity to retaliate against London, Berlin and Paris.

But the argument that carried the most weight with him, Truman explained, was that we should not atom-bomb Russian satellites in reprisal against the Kremlin.

Regarding the question of arming Chinese guerrillas against the communists, the president pointed out that it might lead to a retaliatory communist move against the Philippines; also that the guerrillas are too "inaccessible" and scattered to be supplied from the air or welded together into an effective fighting force.

ANOTHER MUSIC CRITIC—President Truman has a different opinion of at least one music critic—Mrs. Helen Spain of the Atlanta Journal, who wrote such a favorable review of Margaret's concert in Atlanta last season that the president bubbled over with joy and telegraphed the Atlanta Journal for extra copies of Margaret's picture. (Contrary to rumor, the president did not use profane language in his note to critic Paul Hume of the Washington Post.)

In Step With The Sower

By ARCH DONOVAN

Did you hear the buz-z-z that has floated up to the ears of the Sower?

Gov. Val Peterson, on his latest visit to Washington stayed at a well-known hotel.

"So what?" you inquire. "Ah! Thereby hangs a tale, according to the buzzings the Sower hears. The story goes that Sen. Hugh Butler has a room at his home reserved for the governor. On visits to the Capital. This they always have taken advantage of since his first election.

However, the story continues, if the governor sees fit to engage in a joust for the senator's seat, it is considered etiquette for him to then stay at a hotel. This serves warning to the senator as to his competition.

At least, that was the procedure followed by former Gov. Dwight Griswold, who lost to the senator in the primary. Gov. Peterson has always before stayed at the home of the senator on trips to Washington since he has been governor.

Questioned, the governor smilingly admitted staying at a hotel and continued, "I know what you're driving at." But he refused to amplify the statement.

Civilian defense plans for Capitol employees did not get too sympathetic a welcome from those they are supposed to protect, if the mutterings heard by the Sower represent the general viewpoint.

"We have little to fear of bombs being dropped from above as compared to the threat of wax on corridor floors below," one cynic was heard to say. The remark followed the fall of Mrs. Harold Prince, vice chairman of the board of control, on a newly waxed floor. Her ankle was broken.

"Last winter, three women received broken bones as a result of falls on newly waxed floors.

west Germans right under the noses of the Russians to serve as the nucleus for a future west German army. Two thousand have been armed and equipped into battalions in west Berlin, with the rest stationed in four training centers in the western zone under the label of "labor battalions." Actually, they are carefully selected anti-nazis who will be the officers of the new German army.

CHINESE MONROE DOCTRINE

Most significant news to come out of Asia recently resulted from a talk between Prime Minister Nehru of India and U. S. Ambassador Loy Henderson, at which Nehru broke the news of the new Chinese Monroe Doctrine for Asia.

This would mean that all white and non-Asiatic nations are to keep out. Any interference, according to the proposed Chinese Monroe Doctrine, would be justification for war. The doctrine would also apply to Japan, Prime Minister Nehru informed Ambassador Henderson.

NOTE—Nehru is not in sympathy with the Chinese policy, believes Europeans and Asiatics can co-operate together.

LEGAL WIRE-TAPPING

Congressmen will give special attention in January to the U. S. circuit court of appeals decision overthrewing the Judy Coplon conviction. In this decision, the three judges took the unusual course of recommending legislation to congress—something that judges, in our system of checks and balances, seldom do.

Pointing out that the FBI had less power to arrest than the ordinary sheriff, the court recommended that FBI powers to arrest be enlarged; also that certain phases of wire-tapping be declared legal when it involved "espionage, sabotage, kidnapping, extortion and national security."

J. Edgar Hoover has leaned over backward against any illegal use of wire-tapping—unlike many other government agencies, the Washington police and even some senators. In fact, the protection of civil liberties would be much safer if Hoover's bureau alone were allowed to handle wire-tapping.

NEBRASKANS: In The Workshop And At Home

No. 61 of a series

HOLMES SCHOOL has encountered the same problem as many another business and industry today. Due to rapid expansion and growth, it awoke one morning to find itself, figuratively "too big for its britches."

Miss Gwynne Hord, principal, shown above, joined the staff there five years ago. At that time there were fewer than 100 on the enrollment lists. The attractive one-story Georgian colonial building, designed for the maximum accommodation of 150 pupils, has seen 240 attending classes this school term, with an estimated 300 expected next year.

The problem has arisen because of the region served—Normal, Kimballer, Piedmont—all new sections of Lincoln and fast-growing residential areas.

SOMETHING, of course, will have to be done, as Miss Hord logically points out. An addition to the building will probably be built if materials and supplies remain available. The present-time congestion requires the necessity of use of part of the basement for school work, using the basement hallway as projection room for movies, and location of sixth-grade classes on the auditorium floor.

Holmes school is proud of its visual-education program, its instrumental music opportunities; and its safety precautions. "We try to make each pupil alert to his own safety," Miss Hord states.

THE greater portion of school policy is planned and carried out through committees. "If a child sees the need for restrictions," Miss Hord has found, "as a rule, he abides by them and does the right thing. The best way is to show them why, and not merely declare a new rule."

Miss Hord received both her bachelor's and master's degrees from the University of Nebraska, and taught at Randolph, Irving and Northeast schools before assuming her duties at Holmes.

She has these observations to offer on the matter of teaching: "It's the challenges that make it interesting. It would be quite dull if there were no challenges. And there is never a dull moment!"

Washington Calling

INTER-AMERICAN DEFENSE NEEDED FOR U. S. SECURITY

By MARQUIS CHILDS

WASHINGTON—The decision to hold a conference of the American republics as soon as possible comes under the heading of "better late than never." But there is no use concealing the fact that it is very late, indeed, to start thinking about what has been so long called our last line of defense.

A mixture of indifference, defeatism and bungling has produced the inevitable result. The unity that exists today is largely a carry-over from the good-neighbor policy of the past.

In the past five years, the United States has intervened first on one side and then on the other in the domestic affairs of our Latin-American neighbors. Too often the effect of this intervention has been to reward our enemies and penalize our friends. The intervention has been clumsy and obtrusive in many instances.

The primary example is Argentina. In Argentina the aim of U. S. policy was first to try by obscure means to unseat the dictator, Juan Peron. Without far more drastic measure this country was willing to apply, the effort was bound to fail.

It left behind chiefly a sense of nagging irritation, with the friends of freedom in Argentina disappointed and disillusioned. Recently Peron was given a sizable export-import bank loan, the main objective of which is apparently to enable United States firms to go on doing business in the Argentine.

In the present period with everybody looking around for someone else to blame, it is easy enough to point the finger of scorn at that old devil, the state department. But congress, where pressure groups have been busy lobbying to serve their own interests, must take a considerable share of the blame.

Copper is a beautiful example. About 47 per cent of the copper used in this country is imported, most of it coming from Chile. During World War II the import tax of 2 cents a pound was suspended and the suspension was continued until June 30 of this year.

The state department worked hard to persuade congress to extend the suspension or wipe out the tariff entirely. The chief effect, it was pointed out, would be to increase the cost of copper to the American consumer by two cents a pound. Producers in this country would use the increase in the cost of foreign copper to boost their own prices. The two largest U. S. companies also control most of Chile's copper production. Today in the gray market, copper is said to bring almost double the price of 20 cents a pound prevailing before the Korean war.

Tin, which is the chief source of Venezuela is almost wholly dependent on petroleum for dollars to buy essential U. S. machines and other imports. The coal lobby, in league with the independent oil producers, has been working to get some sort of tax or tariff applied which would at least keep down the amount of Venezuelan oil coming into North American ports. In recent months it has been on the upgrade.

They seem about to get their way if only by default. The good-neighbor trade agreement with Mexico is being terminated as of the end of this year. That agreement calls for a reduction of the tariff on oil from 21 cents to 10½ cents a barrel and this reduction extended to oil imports from every country. Therefore, unless something is done, the tariff on oil will go back to 21 cents.

All this bespeaks the most monstrous folly. And it is folly not alone from the viewpoint on injuring our Latin-American neighbors and alienating opinion there. It has been a major contribution to the present inflation. And, perhaps most important of all, it ignores the need to conserve our own dwindling resources and to build up avenues of supply for vital materials from outside the United States. For example, if middle east oil were to be lost to the west, the Venezuelan supply would be of vital importance.

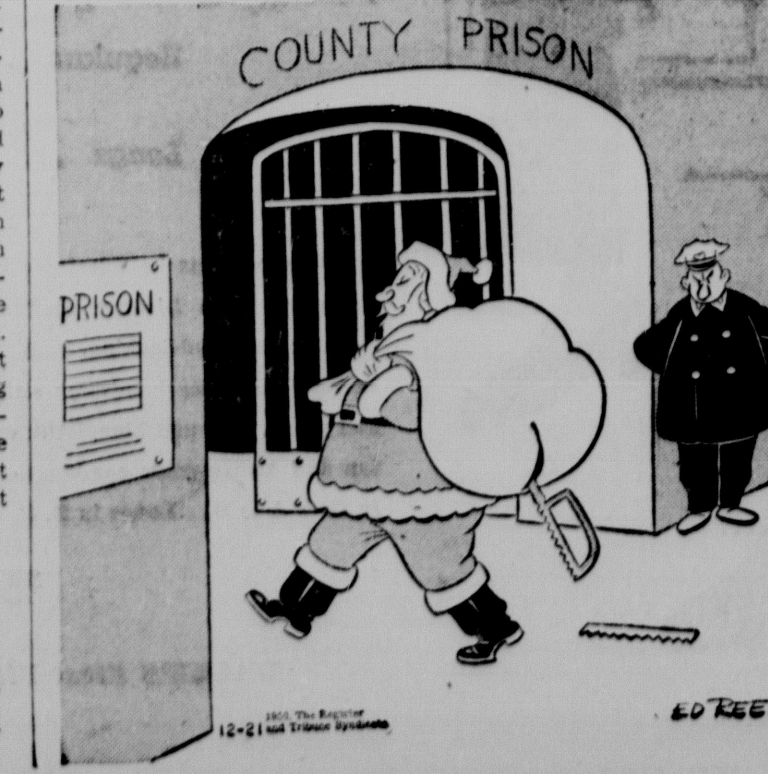

The coming inter-American conference, which will probably be held in Washington, will have a full agenda. The need to co-operate on measures to check the spread of communism, counter the danger of internal sabotage and at the same time to implement inter-American defense has long been obvious.

But the No. 1 goal should be to end these economic monstrosities that today imperil the security of all the Americas.

JUST FOLKS

By EDGAR A. GUEST

HEALTH FOR CHRISTMAS.

I can remember years ago my mother always said: "I hope this Christmas none of us will have to stay in bed. It's bad enough on common days when someone catches cold. Or scarlet spots of measles mother suddenly behold. But when the Christmas time begins, wherever children dwell, I pray when Santa comes to call that they will all be well."

The doctor felt my neck one year and found two rounded lumps. "You'll have to keep the boy in bed," said he. "He has the mumps!" Another year the chicken pox forced me in bed to stay. It seemed the ill of childhood pay no heed to Christmas Day.

And so for children everywhere this wish of mine I tell. This Christmas morning when they wake, may every one be well. The day is meant for happiness, and this all parents dread: The sign of fever that will mean the child must stay in bed. Oh, if I could be Santa Claus, the stockings I should fill. And then make sure before I left that no one would be ill. This wish I'd grant to young and old when rings the Christmas bell: That all will wake to merriest and every one be well.

Certainly broad verbal guarantees made by unreliable firms are often 100% worthless. A guarantee is security against default or nonfulfillment of contract. Insist on written and specific guarantees and deal with firms that have a reputation for standing behind their merchandise and services.

Reynolds' Performance Rates Among Big Three

Peru College Slaying, State Population Gain, Oil And Gas Discoveries Next In Line

By E. E. MAKIESKY.
(Associated Press Staff Writer)

Disastrous flash floods, which rated as the fourth worst weather disaster in Nebraska history, topped Nebraska's top state news story in 1950.

The floods which struck southeast Nebraska with terrible violence last May 8 left 22 dead and millions of dollars damage.

The disaster impressed news executives of Associated Press member newspapers and radio stations and AP writers as worthy of first place in a list of the top 10 Nebraska news stories of the year.

The selection was reminiscent of the 1949 top story—the disastrous winter which took 25 lives and created untold misery. Of 27 ballots cast this year, 18 listed the flood story first. The other ballots rated it near the top.

Some Maytime weather shenanigans preceded the floods. There was a near-blizzard in central and western Nebraska. Tooth-rattling winds struck in the east. A few days later torrential rains fell in southeast Nebraska.

Travelers Die.
After the rains, water rose with phenomenal speed. It cascaded across the countryside with a force that swept cars, and even a bus from the highways. All but two of the victims were travelers, tragically trapped on roads. More than a dozen communities were hard hit. One town, DeWitt, about 30 miles southwest of Lincoln, was completely flooded and isolated for a time.

This weather disaster was ex-are wrong. But if you'd feel more comfortable in a less vibrant shade, you may select a red with the same undertone as those listed, but graded-down to a whisper.

Titian: Depends on your shade of hair. If it has a lot of yellow lights in it, the chances are you can wear some of the more toned-down, yellow reds.

And here's the second Powers Girl secret of wearing red well: Your rouge and lipstick must complement the undertone of whatever you wear. It does not necessarily have to match, but it must be in the same family. I doubt if you would fall for a Burgandy lipstick if you wear a Burgandy coat; you'd have to have some lighter shade of blue-red stick.

The one exception to this rule is a lucky one. If you already own something that you know in your heart is the wrong shade of red for your skin, you can make a glorious compromise by using a lipstick that is true red. It must have no blue or yellow undertones. The pull between your own skin tones and the underlying tones of the dress will be resolved or very nearly so by the tactful

City Water Works Handling Praised

The state health department in a report to the city engineer Wednesday praised the physical equipment and especially the operating and management of the city water works.

"The persons responsible for this water works," said the report, "are to be complimented in maintaining the supply in so consistently a good condition."

The report, signed by Dr. Frank D. Ryder, director of the state department of health, covers approximately a three-year period of operation for the city water department.

The statement also informed City Engineer D. L. Erickson that a favorable certification has been recommended for the water department to the public health service department of the Federal Security agency.

Spradling On Stand In York Assault Trial

YORK, Neb.—(AP)—A District court jury has been told by a psychiatrist that Emil Moravec knows the difference between right and wrong.

The doctor was Dr. F. L. Spradling of the Lincoln State hospital. He was a witness for the state yesterday in the District court trial of Moravec on a charge of assault with intent to murder.

Moravec is accused of planting a dynamite booby-trap which shattered the leg of farmer Gay-nord Brown.

The state is expected to bring another psychiatrist to the stand today. Also scheduled among today's witness is Mrs. Gay-nord Brown, wife of the injured farmer.

The witnesses are part of the state's rebuttal. The defense rested its case yesterday.

Last defense witness was Mrs. Moravec, wife of the defendant. She corroborated testimony of a daughter that the Moravec and Brown families had met to break off friendly relations.

Shirley Quits Films

SAN FRANCISCO—(AP)—Shirley Temple says she's quitting at 22 the movie career she began 19 years ago.

"That's long enough. My only contract is to Mr. Black," she dimpled, giving her tall, new groom a hug. "And it's exclusive."

Charles Black, asked about the honeymoon they began immediately after their Saturday marriage at Monterey, replied: "Our honeymoon will last forever."

He added that he must resume his work at TV station KTTV in Los Angeles this week-end.

The honeymooners received the press yesterday. Shirley said: "My little girl (Linda, 3) needs a lot of both of us."

Linda is her daughter by John Agar, whom she divorced last year.

WRECKAGE OF PLANE IS SIGHTED

MANILA —(AP)— The partly burned wreckage of a U. S. C-54 military transport was sighted by search planes today near the top of a 9,324-foot mountain 140 miles northeast of Manila. There was no sign of life.

The plane with 37 persons aboard struck the 8,000-foot level of Mount Tabayoc en route Tuesday from Okinawa to Clark air base, 60 miles north of Manila. It carried 30 military personnel and a crew of seven.

U. N. Losses Near 13,000 In Red Counter Offensive

... Enemy Casualties At Ratio Of 10 To 1

TOKYO—(INS)—Gen. Douglas MacArthur announced today that United Nations troops, exclusive of South Koreans, had suffered close to 13,000 casualties in a little more than two weeks during the height of the main Chinese counter offensive in Korea.

But MacArthur emphasized that such losses "are not unusual in comparison with similar situations in other wars." And he added in a communiqué:

"Total losses since June over a period of five and one half months have not even approximated battle losses in certain comparable operations of World War II."

In addition the communiqué noted:

"Field commanders report corresponding enemy losses at a ratio of 10 to 1."

"The effect of these losses is already noticeable in a perceptible slowdown of the enemy's current rate of advance."

The supreme commander issued a detailed breakdown of 12,975 killed, wounded and missing between Nov. 27 and Dec. 12. The units listed in the announcement are predominantly composed of American troops, with small British commonwealth, Turkish and other U. N. groups attached to some of the U. S. divisions.

Second Infantry Hardest Hit

MacArthur's announcement revealed that the U. S. army's Second infantry division was the hardest hit among the units listed.

The Second infantry held the Eighth army's right flank during the retreat from Chongchon river line north of Pyongyang. It suffered 4,131 casualties.

The next heaviest toll was inflicted on the heroic First marine division which burst from a communist trap in the Changlin sector against odds of more than seven-to-one. The marines lost 2,891 men.

The seventh infantry division, some units of which joined the marines in the breakout from Hagaru through Kotari to the east coast port of Hungnam, suffered 2,097 casualties. The next most serious losses—1,696—were inflicted on the main force of the Chinese communist frontal assault from the northwest.

In comparison, losses were light in other Eighth army units. MacArthur gave them as Third infantry, 650; First cavalry 443; and 24th infantry 146.

Casualties among all other United Nations forces, exclusive of ROKs (Republic of Korea personnel) were given as 1,011.

Surviving are his wife, Livette; two sons, Dallas, Chapin, Neb., and Denton; McCook, four daughters, Nellie, Washington, D. C., Mrs. Winnie Metcalf, Mountain Grove, Mo., Mrs. Chris Brown, Rutledge, Mo., and Mrs. Arlan Butler, Manhattan, Kas.; a brother and a sister.

ONE MAN'S OPINION

By WALTER KIERNAN.

Distributed by International News Serv. And a Merry Christmas to Gen. Eisenhower, who is leaving Columbia for a larger campus.

He and MacArthur are about the only war material that wasn't sold off as surplus in those gay, mad days when rumors of peace swept the country.

We're still giving away an occasional battleship... free delivery and a full gas tank.

This new psychology is that if you install fire escapes on enough of the neighbor's houses (labor and material free), you'll never get trapped in your own attic.

If it seems like strained logic, you also can get it unstrained... a fresh batch every day, looks good and tastes horrible.

But the statement has been made that anyone who disagrees with our present policies is helping Russia... possibly not quite as much as lend lease helped.

All I know is that things are confused... and with that line I hope to win a Pulitzer prize for understatement.

MRS. MARY O. GROSSMAN

VERDON—Funeral services for Mrs. Mary O. Grossman, 53, who died unexpectedly Saturday of a heart attack were held Tuesday afternoon. She died just two and a half months after the death of her husband, William F. Born in Humboldt, she was a lifetime resident of this county. Surviving are four sons, Otto, Verdon, La. Grodon, U. S. navy; William of Kimball and Gerald of Stella; one daughter, Marjorie, Verdon; her mother, Mrs. Anna Carpenter, Humboldt; three brothers, three sisters and three grandchildren.

VA Cannot Give Physical Exams In All Cases

The veterans administration Thursday issued a reminder to veterans that the VA is not permitted to give routine physical check-ups or examination which have no direct connection with an application for some veterans benefit.

Ashley Westmoreland, Lincoln regional office manager, said the VA can and does perform thousands of physical examinations, but he explained that such examinations are authorized and scheduled by the VA in specific connection with applications for VA hospitalization, out-patient treatment, compensation, pension, G. I. Insurance reinstatement, and other veteran benefits.

The VA official said the agency was receiving an increasing number of requests for examinations—many of them made in person—from veterans who just want a general check made of their physical condition. The VA cannot perform such examinations, he added.

State Pardon Board Gives Six Paroles

Clemency Shown In All But One Case

The Yule spirit was evident in the state pardon board commuting sentences of six out of seven applicants heard at the December meeting Wednesday, but pleas for hearings occupied the major part of the morning.

Repeated cases that have come before the board where there have been guilty pleas to felonies and the offender did not have advice of an attorney led Gov. Val Peterson to suggest that the situation be called to the attention of the state bar association.

"It is only good practice to insist that these men be represented by counsel," the governor said. "The bar association should study the advisability of having the legislature making it mandatory."

Attitude Changed

Gov. Val Peterson pointed out that since his confinement he has established a record of belligerency and was one of the ringleaders in inciting the prison riot four years ago. The ministers contended his attitude had changed in the past 18 months.

Leonard Dunker sought to have LeRoy Helter given a hearing in March. He said his preliminary investigation indicated that new evidence would be presented.

Ira York, 30, of El Reno, Okla., sentenced at Plattsmouth on a rape charge against a 9-year-old girl, was not represented by counsel at his trial, Bryan Littrell told the board. He said he had proof that he was improperly charged and did not commit rape.

The special appearances were heard to clean up the year's business of the board. The usual procedure is for cases to be set after examination and recommendation by the classification board.

Law Changed

C. E. Walsh, appearing in behalf of 70-year-old Johnny Jones, charged that there was prejudice permitted when Jones was convicted on a charge of carrying concealed weapons and that the law has since been changed in this respect. He contended his client is entitled to the same consideration now given in similar cases.

Jones was found guilty during the period when habitual criminal testimony was permitted to be given the jury. Walsh said he would be able to give evidence that actually Jones was not convicted on the charge of carrying concealed weapons but on being an habitual criminal.

A plea was made by Reverends Chambers and Farwell that a hearing be given John M. Canada convicted of embezzling $62,000 while treasurer of Gosper county. He has appealed for an "unconditional pardon." He has contended that his church and civic activities before his conviction should be considered to ameliorate his offense.

Repeated cases that have come before the board where there have been guilty pleas to felonies and the offender did not have advice of an attorney led Gov. Val Peterson to suggest that the situation be called to the attention of the state bar association.

"It is only good practice to insist that these men be represented by counsel," the governor said. "The bar association should study the advisability of having the legislature making it mandatory."

Attitude Changed

Gov. Val Peterson pointed out that since his confinement he has established a record of belligerency and was one of the ringleaders in inciting the prison riot four years ago. The ministers contended his attitude had changed in the past 18 months.

Leonard Dunker sought to have LeRoy Helter given a hearing in March. He said his preliminary investigation indicated that new evidence would be presented.

Ira York, 30, of El Reno, Okla., sentenced at Plattsmouth on a rape charge against a 9-year-old girl, was not represented by counsel at his trial, Bryan Littrell told the board. He said he had proof that he was improperly charged and did not commit rape.

The special appearances were heard to clean up the year's business of the board. The usual procedure is for cases to be set after examination and recommendation by the classification board.

Law Changed

C. E. Walsh, appearing in behalf of 70-year-old Johnny Jones, charged that there was prejudice permitted when Jones was convicted on a charge of carrying concealed weapons and that the law has since been changed in this respect. He contended his client is entitled to the same consideration now given in similar cases.

Jones was found guilty during the period when habitual criminal testimony was permitted to be given the jury. Walsh said he would be able to give evidence that actually Jones was not con-

State Game Commission Cuts Building ... $121,600 Eliminated

The state game commission today had estimated $121,600 in construction from its 1951-53 budget because of the national emergency.

Projects eliminated include: Ponca state park, cabins and camp, $22,000; Ft. Kearny state park, water supply, building and equipment, $18,100; Niobrara state park, cabins, $12,000; Chadron state park, cabins, camp and headquarters building, $43,000; game farm, brooder, hatch house, shed and equipment, $15,500; miscellaneous, $11,000.

In addition, the commission said, it is postponing construction of its planned $25,000 seining crew headquarters building at North Platte, excepting architect fees already obligated.

"The commission offers any further co-operation possible which will, in any way, aid in the present critical period," Secretary Paul Gilbert said.

Governor Peterson last week announced a "freeze" on all new construction for state institutions because of the national emergency.

Jobless Pay Hike Given Approval

A unanimous vote was cast by the state advisory council of the division of employment security for legislation to increase the maximum weekly jobless pay benefits from $20 to $24, and minimum payments from $8 to $9. The action came at a meeting held Dec. 16 at the Rudge building. The council also favored a corresponding increase in weekly benefit amounts falling between the maximum and minimum amounts.

Presiding at the meeting was Labor Commissioner Donald P. Miller. Members attending were Donald E. Devries, Kenneth P. Lewis, James M. Reinhardt and Neal W. Brown of Lincoln, and L. H. Fuqua, Omaha.

Club Hears Changes In Social Security

Recent changes in social security laws, amended Aug. 15, were told the Hiram club at the Wednesday luncheon meeting at the Y.W.C.A.

E. L. Iske, assistant manager of the Lincoln social security office, elaborated on the revisions during the general discussion period. George Kurk presided.

Dr. Lucas, 56, Ex - Nebraskan, Dies In Denver

CREIGHTON, Neb.—Funeral services for Dr. Harold T. Lucas, 56, former Nebraska resident, were held here Sunday afternoon. He died in Denver, Wednesday, Dec. 13.

Dr. Lucas, who resided in Wisner for 25 years, was widely known among northeast Nebraska baseball fans when he played for Norfolk in the old Nebraska State league days.

Surviving are his wife; one daughter, Mrs. Charles Brim, Lincoln; his mother, Mrs. Gertrude Pierce, Creighton; a brother Dr. W. F. Lucas, Yankton, S. D., and a grandson.

In Irish folklore, the Banshee is a supernatural being whose mournful screaming is held to foretell death.

DORR'S

GROCERY — MARKET
2219 C Street 3-8713

Dear Mary,
Wish you and Ted could have been here for Sue's party. She served barbecued spareribs with a wonderful dip sauce. Turns out the sauce she uses is a sandwich spread called Lunch Box—and yours truly is now one of its greatest fans.

Anyway, the next day I lost no time in getting a jar of this Lunch Box Spread (Safeway carries it)—and wait till you taste what it does for a sandwich! I want you to try it with peanut butter and crisp bacon tidbits for something really special.

You know what a fussbudget I am about flavor—and this Lunch Box is the best and freshest spread I've ever tasted. It's made with real, pure mayonnaise perked up with pickle relish and sweet red peppers. Honestly, I don't see how it can do so reasonably, but I'm glad it does—for we go through a quart size too for I know you'll want to try it in all your fillings—sauces and spreads.

You must be up to your ears, like I am, packing lunches these days, so I've got a new kind of sandwich for you—no bread! Just spread a slice of cold boiled ham with lots of luscious Lunch Box. Roll it around a crisp green onion and secure it with a toothpick. My boys think it's super—and yours will, too.

Love,
Helen
P.S. made exclusively with real mayonnaise

Yuletide Buffet Supper

Maybe you have a gala occasion on Christmas eve—or perhaps at noon on Christmas day—But it could be that the family and house guests prefer not to look at the turkey again until tomorrow AND, of course, they must be fed.

We suggest Shrimp Mull—adapted from an old, old recipe, and very tasty if we do say so ourselves—The nice feature concerning it is that it must be prepared ahead of time—and reheated.

Here it is:
SHRIMP MULL
Ingredients: 3 tablespoons butter or margarine, 1/4 cup diced onion, 1 small garlic clove, 1 1/2 teaspoons salt, 1 No. 2 can (2 1/4 cups) tomatoes, 2 cups water, 1/2 cup catsup, 1/2 teaspoon celery seed, dash of tabasco sauce, 1/4 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce, 1/8 teaspoon pepper, 1 to 2 teaspoons lemon juice, 1 pound raw shrimp (peeled, black vein removed) and cut in two lengthwise, cup fine cracker crumbs, 1 package (1 1/2 cups pre-cooked rice).

Method: Melt butter or margarine in saucepan on large deep skillet; add onion and cook over low heat a few minutes. Meanwhile peel garlic and crush in 1/2 teaspoon of the salt until garlic is in fine shreds. Add to onion with remaining salt, tomatoes, water, catsup, celery seed, tabasco, Worcestershire and pepper. Cover and simmer 1 hour. Add lemon juice and shrimp and cook 5 minutes or

Council Sets 1st License Hearing Under New Rule

The city council set Jan. 2 at 10 a.m. for a hearing on the application of Daniel Dergert, jr., for an on and off-sale beer license at 946 P street.

The license at present is under the name of Frank W. and Helen L. Coffey.

The application will be the first one considered under the policy approved by the council Monday which allows a liquor license selling his business to name his successor.

The issue should cause the council little trouble, however, as the new sell-out policy has been followed by the council for the past year even with an ordinance against it on the books.

The Hergert application still will not fill the one vacancy existing on the number of licenses allowed in the city. When the council put club licenses in a separate group it left only 39 on and off-sale license. The limit is 40.

State Advances For December Assistance Total $1,406,747

Advances to counties to meet assistance costs were $1,406,747 in December as compared to $1,396,730 in November, Director of Assistance Neil Vandemoer said.

He also reported that the effects of old age and survivors' insurance law changes are being reflected in a decrease in the assistance load. The number of old age grants in November fell to 23,418 from 23,520 in October and 23,788 a year ago.

Average grants, however, due to increased living costs, went up from $58.13 to $48.54.

In like manner the number of families receiving aid to dependent children dropped from 3,567 in October to 3,518 in November and the number of children from 8,492 to 8,399.

Blind grants have increased 100 in the past year due to the increase in the ceiling made by the last legislature. Old age recipients who are losing their sight are applying for blind aid. The total number now is 713.

To Question Three In Theft From Park

Three high school students were ordered to report to police Friday morning to answer questions concerning the burglary of an Antelope Park concession stand Aug. 14.

One of the boys is 16 years old. His companions both gave their ages as 13. All three were arrested at their homes Monday night.

The youths were released by Capt. Clinton C. Hurd. Capt. Hurd said that soda pop, ice cream and candy were taken from a concession stand in the park bandstand on the night in question.

FARM WOMEN'S EXCHANGE
Edited By CLARA BELL GRAVES.

Address you letters to Mrs. Clara Bell Graves, editor The Lincoln Star Exchange, 905 N. Fifth St., Springfield, Ill.

The darkest days of the year are here. It seems to us that no sooner do we get comfortably seated in our office than the lights must be turned on and the twilight of night has come upon us. This is the time of the year when we become more and more isolated from friends and neighbors. No more back-fence gossip in the friendly vein about our neighbors. Were it not for the friendly snow under a winter sunshine we would feel lonely, indeed.

This is the time of year when Christmas comes to brighten the days and the nights. Women buy new, bright lamps shades, or draperies or remove them completely to let the light come in. This is the time of year when the glitter and the magic of light become more effective.

And this is the time of year when the aroma of baking cakes and cookies become a fixed feature in our homes. As I write, the snow is swirling outside the office window and the odor of a pine branch, in a large vase, is sending a forest-like perfume around our desks.

And again I wonder if ever the southern readers of the column enjoy Christmas as we do, because the bright Christmas comes in the darkest month of the year.

Winter Vacation

Because I like to take a winter vacation, I split the summer two weeks and enjoy one week in the winter-time. You do not write to me, anyway. Perhaps you are tired or perhaps you are busy with after-Christmas parties. So, I shall not write to you for a week. How's that?

If the woman who wrote me, on a card, a question that she wants answered, will write again, I shall take care not to lose this one. And everybody please write me what Santa brought you. Then I'll write to you.

Cranberry Loaf

We have received more recipes for the use of cranberries than in any other year of the column. But not one for cranberry loaf. Spread 1/2 cup brown sugar in bottom of a greased loaf pan. Spread cranberry sauce over sugar. Combine 1 pound ground beef, 1/2 pound each of ground, smoked ham and fresh pork, 3/4 cup each of milk and cracker crumbs, two eggs, pinch salt and pepper, two tablespoons diced onion. Shape in loaf and spread over cranberries. Put three bay leaves on top and remove after baking. Bake at 350 degrees until done. Serves 12.

Scalloped Chicken.

This recipe could be used as a company dish with left-over fowl of any kind. Boil the fowl if it is not a left-over. Thicken two cups of broth with a paste made of two tablespoons flour and two tablespoons fat, salt and pepper to taste. Measure two cups each of diced, cooked chicken and sliced, cooked potatoes. Fill the dish with alternate layers of bread crumbs, chicken and potatoes. Cover top with crumbs. Add gravy and a few bits of butter and bake in a moderate oven at 350 degrees for thirty minutes. Serves five.

Make Santa.

Not until this year have we learned how to make a Santa Claus centerpiece out of a milk bottle. Use quart or pint size. Put paste around it. Make a head of a stuffed, white sock, hat like a real Santa's, a sack over his neck, filled with small, wrapped candies.

Dressed Apple.

Or dress an apple by putting a marshmallow face on a toothpick into stem end, a cherry on toothpick for a hat. Stick cloves into marshmallow for eyes and mouth. Put strips of cotton around middle of apple.

Oyster Peppers.

Serve oysters in pepper shells, cut lengthwise, whether scalloped or plain or cocktail. Or bake oysters in the peppers.

Cup Cakes.

Or cup cakes could resemble Santa, covered with icing and then coconut. Turn each up side down. Marshmallow face, cherry hat and features are made of cherry slivers and cloves.

Card Trees.

There are on the market, trees made to hold as many as 200 post cards. If you have a natural tree, you could trim it with your greeting cards, using a punch and narrow ribbons to tie on.

Bids Are Opened On Graveling Districts

Bids on two graveling districts were opened at the city hall Wednesday with only two bidders on each district.

On graveling Twenty-eighth from Potter to Fair, Fred W. Kleager bid $470.10 and George A. West bid $451.90. The engineer's estimate was $500.

The Best Sand and Gravel company bid $171.10 and Fred W. Kleager bid $160.05 for graveling Summit boulevard from Wooddale to 707.6 feet south. The estimate was $175.

*Twice the night before Christmas,
When all through the house,
Not a creature was stirring, not even a mouse
The stockings were hung by the chimney with care
In hopes that St. Nicholas soon would be there;
The children were nestled all snug in their beds,
While visions of sugar-plums danced through their heads;*

Our Grateful Thanks

For our Christmas eve feature today we give grateful acknowledgement to Rollin and Charles Allen (Cappy) Phipps, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rollin Phipps, who really were fast asleep, in their little beds—

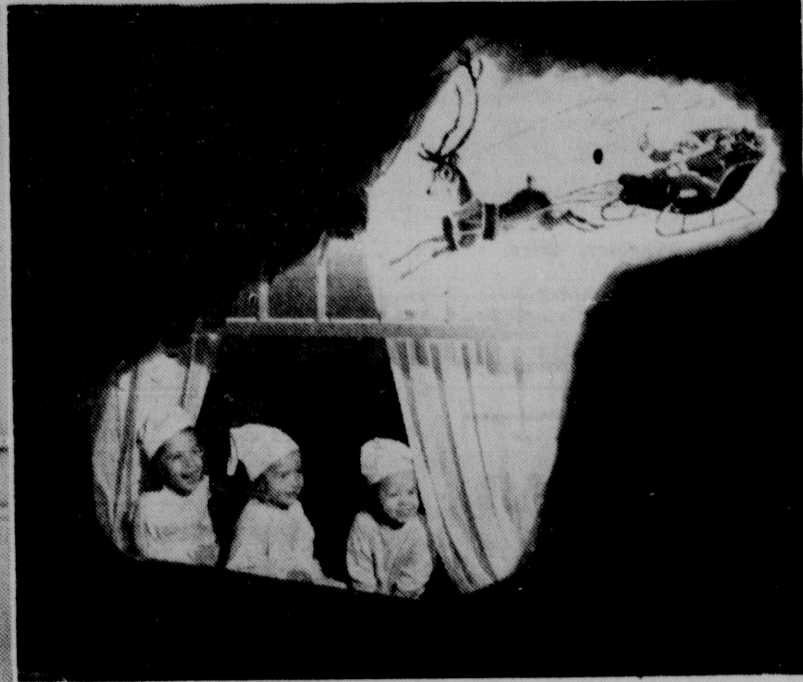

To Mr. and Mrs.—Whoops, we promised not to tell—Anyway, we are pleased with mamma in her kerchief and Pa in his cap—
To Stephenie, Suzanne and Nancy Dort, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Dort, for posing at the window—
AND—to Santa Claus himself—Irvin Rosewell, for being the perfect understudy.

Preview of Christmas Eve

*And mamma in her kerchief, and Pa in his cap
Had just settled their brains for a long winter's nap.*

*When out on the lawn there arose such a clatter
They sprang from their beds to see what was the matter.
Away to the window they flew like a flash,
Tore open the shutters and threw up the sash* * * * *
When what to their wondering eyes did appear,
But a miniature sleigh and eight tiny reindeer,
With a little old driver, so lively and quick
I knew in a moment it must be St. Nick.* * * * **

*And then in a twinkling they heard on the roof
The prancing and pawing of each little hoof.
As they drew in their heads and were turning around,
Down the chimney St. Nicholas came with a bound
He was dressed all in fur from his head to his foot,
And his clothes were all tarnished with ashes and soot
A bundle of toys he had slung on his back
And he looked like a peddler just opening his pack * * * * **

*He sprang to his sleigh, to his team gave a whistle,
And away they all flew like the down of a thistle!
But I heard him exclaim, ere he drove out of sight
"Happy Christmas to all, and to all a good-night."*

The Christmas Rush Has Really Begun

HERE WE GO AGAIN with all sorts of holiday news—plus a little of this and that—interesting events that come during the holiday period, but are not strictly holiday parties—
We have more guests—found more people spending Christmas elsewhere—and all in all we are having a wonderful time—

OFF TO THE WEST COAST—

West Covina, Cal., to be specific, has gone Mrs. Val Peterson who will spend the holidays with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Bradley—The governor, we hear, plans to spend the Christmas week-end with his mother, Mrs. H. C. Peterson, in Oakdale.

Fairbury where they will spend Christmas with Mrs. Prouty's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Livingston.

LEARNED THAT DR. AND MRS. Lettner Lewis have holiday house guests—Mrs. Lewis's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Jones of Kansas City, who arrived on Wednesday, and Dr. Lewis's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Lewis of Galva, Kans., who came today.

THEN WE HEARD THAT Mr. and Mrs. Harry Prouty and their three children, Susan, Patty, and Harry, Jr., came from Phoenix, Ariz., a day or two ago, but have gone on to

ARRIVING ON SATURDAY from Duncan, Wyo., will be Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Trester

and their four children, Billy, Nancy, Jimmy and Sharon, who will spend the holidays with Mr. Trester's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Trester.

HAD A GLIMPSE OF DAVID ANDREWS the other day—Mr. Andrews, who is spending the winter on a Texas ranch, is in town to spend the holidays with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Clayton Andrews.

AND SOMEONE TOLD US THAT Miss Joan Shaw will plane in from New York City on Saturday to spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Shaw.

EARLY IN THE AYEM on Friday Mrs. Carl Weil will go to Omaha where she will meet her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Weil, their son, Carl, II, and their daughter, Cheryl. The group then will drive to Wilmette, Ill., to spend Christmas with Mrs. B. A. Weil's parents, Dr. and Mrs. M. C. Hecht.

Mrs. Weil, who now is all settled in her apartment at 1601 South Twentieth street, will return to Lincoln shortly after Christmas.

ONE OF THE HOLIDAY events which is not strictly a holiday party is the 6 o'clock to 8 o'clock party on Tuesday evening, December 26, when Tom Lawrie and Dan Lilly are hosts at the Lincoln Country club in pre-nuptial courtesy to Miss Sherry Swanson of Omaha, and her fiancé, Fred M. Sidles, whose marriage will be an event of December 30.

COMING FROM OMAHA on Saturday to spend the holidays in Lincoln will be Mr. and Mrs. Russell Gustavson who will divide their time between Mrs. Gustavson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lawrie, and Mr. Gustavson's parents, Chancellor and Mrs. R. G. Gustavson.

ALSO HEARD THAT the day after Christmas will find Mr. and Mrs. Oril A. Barber, Jr., and their children, Cynthia, Jean and Rickey, on their way to Chicago where they will spend the remainder of the holidays with Mrs. Barber's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. George Wahlquist.

C of C Women Name New Directors

Elected to membership on the board of directors of the Lincoln chamber of commerce women's division Wednesday were Miss Dorothea Lemon, Mrs. Ava Griffin, Mrs. Charlotte Holze, Miss Adelheid Miller and Miss Jeanne Zehrung.
The new directors will take office on January 1, and will be presented to the membership at the annual meeting of the division to be held Wednesday, January 17.

MRS. ROY E. CHURCHILL

MARRIAGE OF Miss Barbara Gardner, Roy Churchill Solemnized On Wednesday Evening

White poinsettias and lighted candles appointed the altar of the Church of the Holy Trinity, Episcopal, and evergreen trees lined the chancel of the church to complete an attractive background for the wedding of Miss Barbara Gardner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gardner, and Roy E. Churchill, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Churchill of Philomath, Ore., which was an event of Wednesday evening, December 20. The processional aisle was marked on either side with lighted candles caught with Christmas greens.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a gown of candle-toned satin for her wedding. The smoothly fitted, elongated bodice was patterned with trapunto in a floral motif, and the embroidery was repeated as a contour for the yoke of illusion which created an off-shoulder effect, and again on the long sleeves which were completed with points over the hands. Self-covered buttons formed a back-closing from the high, rounded throatline to the narrow waist beneath which the given accented fullness with unpressed pleats at the sides, swept into a cathedral train. Her tiered veil of bridal illusion was fingertip length, and was held to the head with calot of satin, touched with illusion and ornamented with seed pearls. She carried a white prayer book marked with white orchids.

The 8 o'clock service was solemnized by the Rev. David Gray, rector of the Church of the Holy Trinity, and the wedding music was played by Dorsey Baird, organist. As the guests assembled Mr. Baird presented a prelude of music including "Carillon," Sowerly; "Nocturne," Ferrata; the wedding music from "Tristan and Isolde," and "Communion," Richard Purvis. Mr. Baird also accompanied Miss Beverly Larsen, who sang "O Perfect Love," Barnaby, and "I Love Thee," Grieg.

Christmas green velvet was chosen for the costumes of the attendants, Miss Joan Doty of Pasadena, Cal., who was her cousin's maid of honor; Miss Alyce Van Burg and Miss Rosemary Graham, the bridesmaids, and Miss Margaret Gardner, who was her sister's junior bridesmaid. The shoulder-revealing bodices of the floor-length frocks were snugly fitted and completed with rounded caplets. The green velvet was repeated in the calots and the long mitts worn by each of the attendants, and their ornaments were long, chandelier rhinestone ear-rings, with matching necklaces.

George Scott served Mr. Churchill as best man, and the ushers were Edward McNay, Richard Sautter of Scotia, and Frank Munk of Omaha.

Her tiered veil of bridal illusion was fingertip length, and was held to the head with calot of satin, touched with illusion and ornamented with seed pearls. She carried a white prayer book marked with white orchids.

A reception for the wedding guests immediately followed the ceremony and was held in the church parlors where evergreen trees and poinsettias introduced a Christmas motif. The refreshment tables were appointed with arrangements of holly, and tall lighted tapers in silver candelabra. Assisting at the reception were Miss Hazel Scott, Mrs. H. R. Turner, Mrs. W. H. Howey, Mrs. Robert Stephens, Mrs. Harold Pickett, Mrs. Ted Akeson, Mrs. Harry Weber, Mrs. J. E. Blackman, Mrs. William Avon Fraser, Mrs. Keith Walker, Mrs. Robert Garlinghouse, Mrs. P. B. McKibben, Mrs. Daniel Stubbs, Mrs. O. A. Reinhard, Mrs. George Misko, Mrs. Evan Anderson, Mrs. Dwight McVicker, Mrs. Milburn Johnson, Miss Joris Devereaux, Miss Joel Bailey, Miss Rosemary Motter, Miss Barbara Reinecke, Miss Margaret McCoy, Miss Nancy Norman, Miss Ann Stephenson, Miss Suzanne Marshall, Miss Ruth Ann Curtis, Miss Carolyn Roberts, Miss Mary Reinhard, Miss Barbara Weisheit, Miss Jeanne Stockstill, Miss Beverly Colbert, Miss Virginia Hill, Miss Annette Carnahan, and Miss Sibyl Mark.

For the honeymoon trip Mrs. Churchill wore a suit of royal blue gabardine, with accessories in the luggage tone.

Mrs. Churchill is a student at the University of Nebraska where she is a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority, and Phi Chi Theta. The bridegroom is a graduate student and an assistant instructor at the University of Nebraska where he is a member of Kappa Sigma fraternity. During World War II he served with the navy, and will return to active duty on January 26.

MISS LILLIAN FRINSTROM

Of particular interest to Lincoln social circles, and also to campus groups of a very few years ago, is the announcement made today by Mr. and Mrs. Louis Friedland of Paris, France, of the engagement of their daughter, Miss Lillian Frinstrom, to Jack Rokahr, of Caracas, Venezuela, son of Mrs. George Rokahr, and the late Mr. Rokahr.

No wedding plans have been announced. Miss Frinstrom attended and was graduated from private schools in France.

Mr. Rokahr is a graduate of the University of Nebraska where he is a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity.

Joint Yule Party

The Woodmen of the World camps 264, 607, and 1945 and the Woodmen Circle held a joint Christmas party for their families Wednesday night at the Lincoln hotel.
Mrs. Helen Moser, president of the Woodmen Circle, presided over the party, which included community singing, and the arrival of Santa Claus with presents for the kids. Approximately 150 attended.

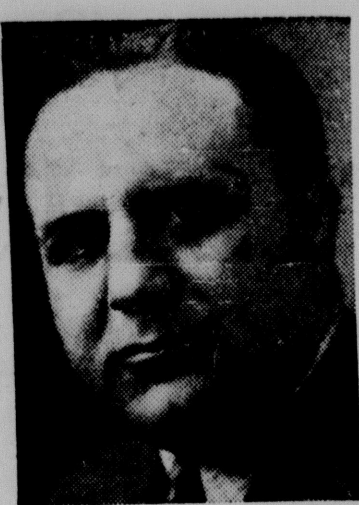

Tree Lights Stolen

Three thefts of Christmas tree bulbs are being investigated by police.
Wednesday night Mrs. Ethel Meyers of 3286 Hitchcock reports that a string of 12 bulbs was stolen from her front yard display. The lights were worth about $1.20.
Forty-one lights, worth $6.97, were stolen about the same time from two decorated trees belonging to G. S. McKenzie, 4929 Ballard. He told officers that he did not see the thieves strip the front yard display.
Floyd Bullock of 4234 North Sixteenth, reported the theft of six colored bulbs Wednesday. He said the string was worth about $1.20.

Al DuTeau Named '51 President Of Chamber

Dobson, Junge, Wheeler Are Vice Presidents; Ganz Treasurer

Alfred A. (Al) DuTeau, long-time civic leader and president of the DuTeau Chevrolet company, Wednesday night was elected president of the Lincoln chamber of commerce.
The announcement was made at a banquet of chamber board directors at Hillcrest Country club. DuTeau took office immediately, succeeding outgoing president, T. A. Sick.
The other new officers for 1951 are:
Robert Dobson, first vice-president.
Emmett Junge, second vice-president.
H. H. Wheeler, third vice-president.
Carl Ganz, treasurer.
Archie Bailey, re-elected secretary.
DuTeau's election to the presidency of the chamber of commerce came after years of civic and chamber work. He spent several years on the agriculture and veterans committee of the chamber. During 1932-34 he served as a director, and he was vice-president in 1934.
In 1949 he started another term in the chamber board of directors, which will run through 1952, concurrent with his 1951 term as president.
In other civic fields, DuTeau is a past president of the Lancaster County Council on Veterans Affairs, past president of the community chest, past potentate of the Shrine in Lincoln, and past president of the Nebraska New Car Dealers association.
DuTeau is an alumnus of the University of Nebraska. He earned his "N" there as a tackle in 1917. He is a former chairman of the University club's Quarterback club.

During World war I, DuTeau served in the naval aviation service. In World war II, he organized war bond drives and served as chairman of war bond sales in Lancaster county.
In addition to his business, Mr. DuTeau has been engaged in farm operation for the past 25 years.
The four other new chamber officers have also led active civic lives.

Building Firm.
Robert A. Dobson, first vice president, was second vice president last year. He is a partner in Dobson Brothers Construction company, and during war years he served as an officer in the navy. His father Arthur A. Dobson was a former president of the chamber of commerce.

Emmett Junge, second vice president, is the secretary-treasurer of the H. P. Lau company.
H. H. Wheeler, third vice president, is vice president and member of the board of The Lincoln Telephone and Telegraph company. He is a past potentate of the Sesostria Shrine, a 33rd degree Mason

Car Owners Are Reminded Lower Fees This Year

Lancaster county motorists writing in for the 1951 auto license plates come the first of the year are cautioned by Treasurer C. E. Berg to send in but the new fee—either $3 or $5.
Cars over 2,800 pounds require the higher fee. Last year's fees were $6 and $8, but repeal of the road program lowered the rates to the old amounts.
Motorists will be able to get their new plates beginning Jan. 2. Those making registrations must enclose both city and county motor vehicle tax receipts and the old registration certificate. They are also asked to enclose 10 cents for mailing.

Painsmen To Four-State Tourney Finals

Hit Bethany, 59-41; Missouri Club Bumps Texans, 67-54

SOUTHWEST MISSOURI STATE TEACHERS earned the right to meet host Nebraska Wesleyan in the finals of the first annual Four-State basketball tournament at the Nebraska coliseum Wednesday night.

In the first game of the evening Southwest Missouri spurted in the second half to chalk up a 67-54 victory over East Texas State College of Commerce, Tex.

Erv Peterson's Plainsmen were the surprise of the tournament as they fashioned an easy 59-41 win over highly-touted Bethany college of Lindsborg, Kas.

Wesleyan will meet the Missourians at 9 Thursday night with Texans and Kansans vying for third place honors at 7.

Both games followed the same pattern as both were decided in the final two periods. Wesleyan managed a slim 23-22 lead at the intermission while Southwest Missouri was hard pressed to gain a 25-25 deadlock at the half.

SEVEN STRAIGHT. Wesleyan came back with a burst of power after the rest period to force the lead. After the score was tied at 27 all, Freshman Dick Graczyk hit seven straight points and Bethany was finished for the night.

Bethany's lack of height was evident during the last two periods as Wesleyan controlled both boards. Coach Ray Hahn's guard found itself cold for the field and therefore easy meat for the Plainsmen.

The Plainsmen featured a well-balanced attack as Jack Wood, Red Gaston, Burl Kreps, Mel Sheary, Mark Martin, Graczyk and Rollie Wiegars all figured in the scoring.

Kreps paced the scoring with 12 points, Graczyk had 11, Gaston 10 and Wood and Sheary nine apiece.

SEVEN-FOR-SEVEN. Bill Carlson led the visitors with 17 points. He had a perfect seven-for-seven at the free throw line to go with five fielders.

Even though Wesleyan made a fine showing Southwest Missouri loomed as the powerhouse of the meet.

(By the Associated Press)

Hastings and Iowa State Teachers fought the wildest battle of the new basketball season Wednesday night on North Platte before Hastings won, 58 to 57, in an overtime.

With three seconds left, Laverne Schafer looped in a free throw that won the game. Before that, the lead saw-sawed back and forth five times in the overtime in addition to six in the regular playing period which ended 51-all.

MEET TONIGHT. At the half the score was tied 32 to 32.

The two teams will meet again at Hastings Thursday night. Last night's game was in connection with the fourth annual West Central Nebraska coaches and officials association.

Barnstorming Peru showed plenty of class taking Adrian college 95 to 51 at Adrian, Mich. In the final ten minutes the Bobcats hit for 33 points. Don Bornschlegel collected 25 for the Nebraska.

Fairbury Junior college turned on the heat in the last five minutes to defeat Nebraska Trade school at Milford 54 to 45.

RECENTLY-BOOED B.A.S.E. ball

Commissioner A. B. Chandler claims he needs only one vote to regain his lost position and with his nickname, "Happy", he now has 11 of the needed 12 votes, he declared recently, and went on to say that he expects to get the other one. In an election held last week by major league executives, Chandler was voted out, with nine votes in his favor and seven against. He needed 12 votes.

University of Chicago Chancellor Robert M. Hutchins, the man who pitched football out of the Windy City school 11 years ago, is leaving, but football, apparently, will not return in Hutchins' wake. Athletic Director T. N. McCall said yesterday he knew of no plan to change the institution's policy, despite the chancellor's resignation.

The Helms Athletic foundation has named Dick Atlessey, USC world record breaking hurdler, as "Athlete of the Year." He shattered the world standard at Fresno, Cal., last summer with a 13.5 mark and followed with the same height for the 110-meter hurdles in Finland.

Jockey Joe Culmone has given up all hope of riding enough winners to break Walter Miller's year-old racing record. Miller's record is 388 wins; Culmone has 358—and there are nine days of racing left.

The National Professional Basketball league will reassign players from the St. Paul and Kansas City teams which recently folded and carry on with six teams. President Magnus Brinkman said.

Diving-up will be at a meeting to be held in Chicago Friday.

Bowl Games Tight, Say Odds Makers

NEW YORK (AP)—If the odds-makers are right in their early line on eight post-season football games, all will be close contests.

No favorite is rated better than a seven-point choice and three of the games are considered either toss-ups or one-point-edge affairs.

The early line:

DECEMBER 25. North-South game at Miami—pick 'em.

DECEMBER 30. East 6½ over West in the East-West game at San Francisco.

Gray 7 over Blue in the Gray-Blue game at Montgomery, Ala.

JANUARY 1. California 1 over Michigan Rose Bowl.

Oklahoma 6½ over Kentucky in the Sugar Bowl.

Texas 7 over Tennessee in the Cotton Bowl.

Michigan 1 over Clemson in the Orange Bowl.

Wyoming 7 over Washington & Lee in the Gator Bowl.

Trapping Industry Story Is Related

Some 5,000 Nebraskans each year are engaged in trapping fur-bearing animals. The industry is a growing one in which each trapper has his own methods of taking the valuable animals.

A lengthy and detailed story on Nebraska trapping and equipment used appears in the winter issue of "Outdoor Nebraska," quarterly magazine published by the Nebraska game commission.

Other informative and interesting stories appearing in the sportsman's magazine regard game commission's sealing under the ice, protection of disappearing native birds, life of a commissioner, training of a hunting dog, cover management to provide suitable habitat for game in the field and many more.

Buddy Parker To Head Lions

DETROIT (INS)—Raymond E. (Buddy) Parker Wednesday was named new Detroit Lions football coach, succeeding Alvin (Bo) McMillin, who quit Tuesday.

The 37-year-old Parker served as McMillin's assistant coach in the past season and was a member of the Detroit championship team of 1935.

Parker, whose home is in Kemp, Tex., was traded to the Chicago Cardinals in 1937 for Tackle Bob Reynolds, remained with that club until the last season when he served the Lions as backfield coach.

The Firing Line

Don't Forget Those Who Can't Forget

MAY we repeat a little plea we made Memorial Day?

You will wake up Christmas morning with a pleasant thought.

There will be the gifts, close companionship with your family and a nice restful day. To others, the day will be a lonely one or just another period of discomfort and danger.

Do you think that the crash of guns, the rattle and crackle of small arms, the deadly thudding of grenades, the swish of iridescent water against the sides of blacked-out ships, the scream of dive bombers, the shrill insistence of boatswain's calls, the trilling whirr of rockets, the blunt crash of bombs and the shrieks of dying men, are all in the past?

Most folks think that those days are layered over with the present, and the pressure of the new World War.

Most think the hell and horror, the stink and mud, of World War II is all part of history. Who likes bad memories?

It isn't over—not at all, for those in veterans' hospitals today or those wallowing around in the confusion, cold and mess that is Korea.

TO some of those fellows in the hospital, those things live today as fresh and terrifying as they were five, six or seven years ago.

Those things happen again every night and tear the soul with as cruel slashes as they did on the beaches of a thousand islands, in the hedgerows, mountain passes and deserts of the front all over the globe.

To those fellows on Korea, our heart goes out to you. Fighting and dying when there's not even a war. Fighting and dying for 60 or 70 bucks a month of which the government kindly removes 10 per cent for income tax.

The hurt and the memory of the hurt still lingers. In the minds of the men whose bodies and minds were torn in the holocaust, the recollection never grows dim.

Those thousands who have spent every day since then in hospitals have had to live close to it. They have not had the grace and goodness of civilian life to spread a thin veneer over scars and burns of those days.

OH, it is so easy to forget things which are painful to remember—unless such have been branded so deeply that conscious thought is never free from ugly recollection.

Thus it may come as a shock to hear that more than 52,000 disabled American veterans have been in hospitals for an entire year without a visitor.

The gray walls, the gray corridors, the gray bathrobes, the gray ceilings and the gray faces of the patients in veterans' hospitals are not easy to forget. So easy, indeed, to put out of mind in the rush and color and goodness of life in the United States.

There's the mud, the bullets, the fright and the cold of those fighting on Korea. They must feel like forgotten men.

So here's what we ask. Take a trip to some veterans' hospital Christmas day or send a gift or just a note of cheer. Remember those forgotten guys overseas with something, even though it be just a postcard.

Don't forget those who can't forget.

Bluebirds Strangle Bonnies

Wayne Sodman Counts 19 Points In Top Show

(Special To The Star)

COLUMBUS, Neb. — Lincoln Cathedral, fired by the offensive performance of their center and game captain, Wayne Sodman, put on their top offensive show of the year in downing St. Bonaventure of Columbus, 53-40.

Sodman was the big threat in the Bluebird offensive machine as he poured 19 points through the hoop for his best spree of the year.

Sodman potted a hook shot after a see-saw six-minutes of play had elapsed that put Cathedral in front to stay, 9-8. He netted six points in the opening period to boost the count to 12-8 at the quarters end.

The Bonnies were able to score only five points in second period while the Bluebirds raced to a 29-13 first half advantage. This second quarter spurge gave the Bluebirds biggest lead of the evening over Cletus Fischer's Shamrocks.

HOLD OWN.

The two clubs battled on even terms during the third period with Sodman finding the range for seven points and Cathedral still held a big 15 point lead at the end of the third quarter, 44-29.

St. Bonaventure narrowed the gap two points in the last frame but was unable to overcome the 15-point deficit.

Sodman's 19 points took scoring honors but he had help from Bill Kryger and Tom Cowan, who had 10 and nine respectively.

St. Bonaventure Center Saunders' 15 points was high for the losers with nine of his counters coming from the charity line.

The Cathedral sophomore team copied the preliminary, 25-19. Friday night Cathedral will invade Lewiston seeking its fifth straight win.

Bob Leslie's Bucket Earns Viewmen 41-39 Triumph

By BOB DECKER (Star Staff Member)

BASKETBALLS were flying fast and furious Wednesday night at Irving gymnasium as College View won a hectic Eastern Nebraska Seven conference battle over Plattsmouth, 41-39, on Bob Leslie's basket with five seconds left.

The Viewmen were as cold as ice until the last few minutes and played ragged ball throughout while coping the contest. But then, it took some fancy shooting in the last three minutes plus the fact that Plattsmouth suddenly fell apart and failed to score in the late minutes of the game to eke out the win.

With the score reading 39-33 in favor of Plattsmouth the Viewmen finally came to life as Duward Van Cleave and Gary Lyons hit a free throw apiece to narrow the gap to 39-37. VanCleave whittled the deficit to 39-37 with a close-in shot with 1:15 seconds left as the Blue Devils stall backfired.

The Plattsmouth boys kept losing the ball and with one minute left Clyde Cook took a pass through the length of the floor for a layup to tie the ball game.

Then midst howls and screams — Bob Leslie, who paced the Viewmen attack with 17 points, became the darling of the CV fans as he tipped in a follow after a long desperation heave by Cook with only five seconds remaining for the clincher.

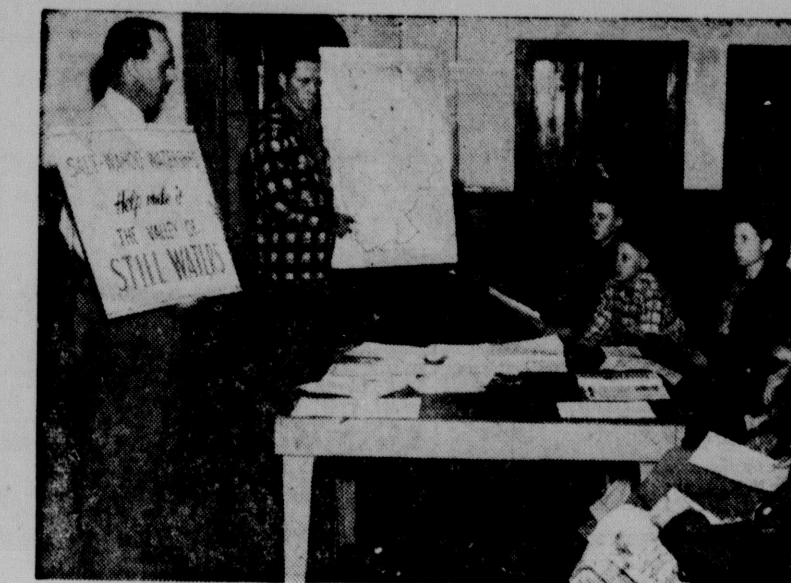

As the College View fans sank back in their seats from lack of breath and voice, Merle Daehle, high man for Plattsmouth with 16 points, fired a long desperation shot from mid-court that zipped through the nets just as the gun sounded.

But the Plattsmouth cheers were cut short as the basket was ruled no good by the timer who declared the buzzer had sounded before the ball left the ball fly, and the Blue Devils' bid for victory fell inches short.

Before the thrilling finish both teams had battled on fairly even terms with the score tied 18-all at the half.

Late in the third quarter Dick Kalasek, Plattsmouth guard, began hitting

Notice Of Hikes Is Asked

Corporations Requested To Give 7-Day Advance Of Any Major Increases

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—Charles E. Wilson officially takes over the reins of national defense mobilization today. He's set to drive fast.

The former head of General Electric arranged to take the oath of office at the White House well under 24 hours after the senate rushed through confirmation of his appointment.

Already, in another step toward cushioning the shock of the defense buildup on the nation's economy, the government had asked 250 large corporations to give at least seven days' notice before raising prices on any major products.

G. M. Appeal Rejected. Economic Stabilization Director Alan Valentine said this would give his agency time to study the proposals and decide if they were justified. If not, the agency could ask or order their abandonment.

Valentine telegraphed the companies to give such advance notices on any line in which they do an annual business of $500,000 or more.

The economic stabilization agency (ESA), also told General Motors Corp. that its appeal for modification of an automobile price roll-back has been rejected.

Two firms asked to help hold the price line—International Harvester Co. and Socony-Vacuum Oil Co.—wired agreement to go along, Sinclair Oil Corp. officials said their company would comply.

And Standard Oil Co. (New Jersey) officials said compliance was up to affiliated operating firms but added they would be "surprised if the affiliates did not go along."

International Harvester announced it was withdrawing price increases announced Dec. 12 and voluntarily rolling prices back to Dec. 1 levels. It said, however, that this creates a hardship and the firm will press for early government hearings on reinstatement of the price increases.

Military Cost Rises. Commenting on developments in the fight against inflation, Rep. Shepard D-Calif. said today that lack of control retroactive to June 1949 cost the military equipment program $5,000,000,000 due to price increases.

And the senate appropriations committee issued a statement sharply criticizing the soaring prices on rubber tires, uniforms, purchases and other items vital to the defense buildup.

It told army, navy, air force and other defense officials that contracts should be at once and delivery needed to avoid additional price increases.

Tot Drops On Franklin Farm

FRANKLIN, Neb.—Funeral services for David Scheuneman, two and a half year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Orin Scheuneman, were held Wednesday afternoon.

The child drowned Monday in a shallow spring near his parents' farm. He had been missing for two hours before his body was discovered by his mother.

Besides his parents, the child is survived by an older brother and sister.

Assistance Request Dulls Pruning Knife

The budgetary pruning knife of Gov. Val Peterson and his staff of budget makers was dulled when it hit the iron bound assistance program, largest spending agency in the state, until discussions went to related activities. When the governor appeared with sharpened pencils, he was given a $39,951,000 request. This is an increase from $37,982,400 appropriated last year. When the hearing closed the budget was still $39,951,000.

"Why the increase of $2,000,- 000?" the governor inquired of Director Neil Vandemoer.

Costs Up.
"The high cost of living, salary increases and new projects," blandly replied Vandemoer. Salary increases were estimated at 5 per cent or $75,000. It was explained that there was no consideration given to increased cost of living in the salary boosts because the maximum of the salary allotment is near.

The governor was informed that federal matching regulations require that 2 per cent be set aside for salaries and that 1.49 per cent is now being used. The increases will move it up to near the 2 per cent.

Aged Help Higher.

The biggest item of the budget, old age assistance, will be $730,000 higher to $27,890,000. The number of cases was estimated to remain constant at about 23,000, but average payments were expected to increase from the present $48.50 to $50 per month, due to higher living and medical treatment costs.

Christmas Spirit

NEW YORK — (AP) — Joseph Cosgrove told police that two holdup men early today took his wallet, containing $385, and then handed back $25 with the comment: "This is your Christmas present."
